

Local and Other Items.

EDITORIAL and other news crowded out. This is the day of the mammoth tea at County Line. The health of Hon. Edward Blake is said to be improving. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Esq., Park Corner, is in the city to-day. JUDGE PRATT, of New York, and a party of ten, are en route to the Island on a pleasure trip. One drunk at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this morning. He rendered the usual tribute. THE "Rectory" property, which was offered at auction to-day by Mr. A. McNeill, was bid up to $2,950, but was reserved by the vendors at $3,300. HIS HONOR LIERT, GOVERNOR MACDONALD and Mrs. Macdonald left on a visit to Georgetown yesterday afternoon. They will be absent several days. We are informed that a strong effort is being made to induce Miss McGarry, the popular elocutionist, to give another of her admirable entertainments in this city. THE "Guardian" is out in a new dress and presents an improved appearance. We congratulate the "Guardian" on the evidences it gives of prosperity. THE BEVAN property on Upper Prince Street was sold at auction this forenoon by Mr. G. M. Harris and purchased by D. Montgomery, Esq., Superintendent of Education, for $1,525. Do not delay, but bear in mind that consumption often begins with a neglected cold or cough. Adamson's Botanic Balsam wins the day in curing coughs and colds. Price 35 and 75 cents. Trial bottles 10 cents. FRANK G. CARPENTER, in the July American Magazine, will describe the amusing difficulties in regard to costume with which our representatives abroad have to contend when they take part in courtly ceremonies. THE City Small Debt Court was in session to-day and adjourned until to-morrow. One of the cases is an action for damages to clothing sustained by coming in contact with a dry goods case on the sidewalk, in front of the store of James Paton & Co. ST. PETER'S CHURCH Strawberry Festival was held yesterday afternoon on the beautiful grounds of Mrs. DesBrisay, Spring Park. It was fairly well attended, and sales were brisk. St. Peter's Boy's School Band supplied very good music. A CORRESPONDENT writes: "Shoddy cloth peddlers are in King's County, defrauding the farmers. Warn the public to be on their guard. They have taken notes of hand of from $30 to $100 from a lot of poor people who will be glad to get half the money for their purchases. THE steamer Metimack, on her first visit from Boston this season, arrived here at half past twelve to-day. The officers of the ship are in first-class health and condition, and will, we have no doubt, maintain the popularity they won last summer. The passenger list as well as the names of the officers, crowded out of to-day's issue, will appear to-morrow. JOSEPH ENMAN, of this city, who has been confined in Summerside Jail for some time past, made his escape on Monday last, and at latest accounts was still at large. The Pioneer says he secured his liberty by means of a long poker with one end bent. Jumping up he fastened it to the top of the wall, and then pulled himself up hand over hand. A squad of men started in pursuit but were unsuccessful. He was noticed by some girls who were out picking berries, making westwards, bare-headed and barefooted. THE total failures in the Dominion of Canada for the first half of the year 1887, according to the returns of Dun, Wiman & Co., foot up to 721 in number, as compared with 609 in the first half of 1886. The liabilities show a very marked increase. For the first six months of 1887 they amount to over $10,000,000, as compared with $5,500,000 in the first six months of 1886. The increase is largely attributable to the banking and timber failures in New Brunswick. Leaving these out, the increase in liabilities would not be so marked, though still considerable. A SHORT time ago, says the Fredericton Farmer, a devoted member of the salvation army, who resides in Gibson, became enamored of a young army lassie who lives in St. Mary's. They united their lives for weal or woe. Bridal trousseau being the order of the day, the happy couple took the train for Woodstock; there they spent a few days of wedded bliss and their cash. When they realized that they could not live on love and faith alone, they set out for Houlton in search of work. Here they could not find work suitable to their tastes, and they resolved to come home. A day or two ago they were seen walking the sleepers of the N. B. railway hand in hand, the red jersey of the groom a little slack, while the bangs of the bride lay flat beneath her dainty poke bonnet. They had walked from Houlton. We are indebted to E. L. Lydiard, Esq., for the following statement of exports for June, 1887, from Queen's and King's Counties:—

The Girl's Father Called Upon.

THE PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.

ABOUT Kensington Station, and, in fact, all along the line of railway, the brutal murder of the betrayed girl, Mary Tuplin, is the only topic of conversation. Go where one will, he will find the people gathered in crowds discussing the details of the terrible affair.

A MEMORABLE SCENE.

The scene on the shore on Monday night while the inquest was in progress, will never be forgotten by those who witnessed it. There could not have been less than two hundred people present and not less than one hundred carriages. The entire country side, as well as many people from Summerside and other places, drove out to the scene. There on the shore lay the body of the ill-fated young girl, while a short distance away was the coroner and his jury holding the inquest, endeavoring to ascertain how the unfortunate girl had come to her death. As the witnesses were examined the details were eagerly drunk in by the surrounding multitude. The results of the inquest and the verdict of the jury have already appeared in THE EXAMINER and need not be gone into here.

INTERMENT OF THE BODY.

After the inquest had been concluded, at about two o'clock in the morning, the body of the unfortunate girl was interred in Margate cemetery.

THE PRISONERS CALLED UPON.

The reporter of THE EXAMINER yesterday called at the house of Donald Cameron, Esq., Long River, about seven miles from Kensington, to see the men arrested for the murder. Their names are William Millman and Thomas Bryenton. The former is arrested as principal, the latter as accessory. He found them seated in the sitting-room of Mr. Cameron's house, in the charge of several constables.

WHAT THE MEN LOOK LIKE AND SAY.

Millman is a young man about nineteen or twenty years of age, mild and rather good looking, and does not look like one who could commit such an atrocious crime as that for which he is arrested. Bryenton, arrested as accessory, is about forty-five years of age and not very prepossessing in appearance. Both Millman and Bryenton were, as was to be expected, somewhat nervous, the latter particularly so. The reporter interrogated them as to their connection with the affair. Both stated that they were innocent of the terrible crime with which they were charged, but declined entering into any lengthened conversation.

THE GIRL'S FATHER CALLED UPON.

Mr. John Tuplin, the father of the unfortunate victim, was also called upon. He was found at his residence, and did not have any objections to talking over the sad affair. The story he told of the child's disappearance, the causes which led up to it, the scouring of the woods and the dragging of Eel Creek has already appeared in THE EXAMINER, and need not be again enumerated. He is deeply grieved over the terrible fate which has overtaken his daughter.

THE PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.

The preliminary examination of Millman and Bryenton was begun yesterday forenoon, at the residence of Mr. Donald Cameron, Long River. After some preliminary proceedings the examination was adjourned until twelve o'clock to-day, at which hour it will commence at the residence of Mr. Edward Warren, Eel Creek.

THE WITNESSES AND COUNSEL.

There, it is said, upwards of thirty witnesses to be examined, and the proceedings will probably last several days. Mr. C. B. McNeill, of this city, and Mr. J. H. Bell, of Summerside, represent the Crown; and Mr. J. E. Wyatt, of Summerside, appears on behalf of the prisoner Millman.

A CORRECTION.

In our report yesterday we inadvertently stated that Mr. Nelson Evans, carpenter, was one of those arrested for the crime. The report of his arrest was current all yesterday afternoon, but afterwards turned out to be incorrect. The report probably arose from the fact that another man named Evans was summoned to attend the preliminary examination as a witness. Mr. Nelson Evans has not been arrested—neither is he likely to be as no suspicion attaches to him. This being the case, we regret the insertion of his name in connection with the affair.

The poor little ones. We often see children with red eruption on face and hands, rough, scaly skin, and often sores on head. These things indicate a depraved condition of the blood. In the growing period, children have need of pure blood by which to build up strong and healthy bodies. If Dr. Pierce's golden medical discovery is given, the blood is purged of its bad elements, and the child's development will be healthy, and as it should be. Scrofulous affections, rickets, fever-sores, hip-joint disease or other grave maladies and suffering are sure to result from neglect and lack of proper attention to such cases. s a w

CANADA LIFE - - $38.5 Per Cent MUTUAL OF NEW YORK 22.6 Per Cent

The above comparison of the profits given their assurers by the Canada Life and by the Mutual Life of New York for the years 1860 to 1886 inclusive, is no satisfaction to the latter company because it includes the quinquennial profits given by the Canada Life in 1880 and 1885. As the Mutual Life prefers that a comparison should be made for the ten year period since 1876, and states that its per centage of profits for that period is 24.6, the Canada Life has pleasure in making the comparison for that period. It is as follows: CANADA LIFE - - $35.2 Per Cent MUTUAL LIFE OF N.Y. 24.6 " " A. G. RAMSAY, MANAGING DIRECTOR. June 30, 1887.
