New Building Is Planned In S' Side For Guardian-Patriot

Patrons of The Guardian and The Evening Patriot in Summerside and district will be served from a new permanent headquarters the erection of which is scheduled to commence immediately.

Located along First Street between Central and St. Stephen Streets, the building will extend the full width of the block. A one-story structure, the 41 x 30 building will be constructed of brick and concrete blocks.

The front entrance will face Central Street, while a truck entrance is planned to open on St.

Stephen Street.

The new building will provide space for a general office, private office, carrier boys' room, a dark-room, and two wash-rooms.

The site was purchased by the Thomson Company Ltd., from Willard MacDonald for $4,000. Recently in use as a car lot, it adjoins a taxi-stand and a barber shop occupying what is shown as "the old market building."

Decided to the Crown in 1914, the old Market Hall once served as billets for the famed 105th Battalion.

Consistency Is Not Always A Virtue Of Citizenship

We heard a man boasting once—at least he appeared to be boasting—that his grandfather and father had always voted for the same political party, and that he would always do the same. Now we admire a man for holding fast to his religious faith, but cannot see why his political allegiance should never change through the years.

"Government by the people" is a familiar phrase. Actually people who inherit their political faiths from their ancestors make very poor "Governors". They would be Liberal or Conservative or what have you no matter how the country is being governed. They are the chief cause of governments becoming smug and disdainful and out of touch with the public need. If one of these people has occasion to make a political speech, he will tell you that Prime Minister Roe made some terrible blunder in 1894, therefore it must be taken for granted that Prime Minister Doe, who is of the same political stripe, cannot be trusted to do the right thing today.

FLOATING VOTE
Thank heavens for the "Turncoats"! There are the only effective "Big Stick" we have for politicians, rewarding or punishing them for deeds done in office. Of course, there is the reprehensible segment of the floating vote who will vote either way for a consideration. They are worse, but not much worse, than the standpatter who cuts the watching over the conduct of our name of one political party on his family tree.

The floating vote, those who

Remanded For Week In Break And Entry Case
A Tignish resident, charged with break, entry and theft from the Tignish Co-op on the night of March 21st was arraigned before Judge W. E. Darby in Summerside on Tuesday afternoon. He elected to be tried by judge and jury and was remanded in custody for one week when the preliminary hearing will begin.

A resident of O'Leary who was also charged with break, entry and theft appeared before Judge Darby and was remanded for one week in custody. No plea was taken.

The accused was charged with taking approximately $1,400. from W. E. Turner's garage in O'Leary on the night of March 27th. Most of this amount was recovered by the Alberton Detachment of the R. C. M. P. who investigated. The money allegedly was taken from the garage safe after a hole was drilled in the rear by means of an acetylene torch.

Mr. George MacMahon is counsel for the accused while Mr. D. O. Stewart, Q. C. is the crown prosecutor.

Rum And Whiskey Stolen From Vendors At Borden

In a bold break at the Borden Retail Vendor Store, discovered by the manager, Alex Dawson, about 9 a. m. yesterday morning, two cases of rum, one case of rye whiskey, (all in pint bottles) and some bottles from the shelves stolen.

Entry to the store was made by first breaking a lock on the back door of an unoccupied apartment in the building in which the store is located.

After entering the apartment a hole was smashed through the wall separating the apartment from the vendor store, and by means of this route to the liquor was stolen.

The R. C. M. P. are investigating this break.

An attempted break was made at this store last fall for which a Borden man was convicted and sent to penitentiary.

Previous by one night to this latest break at the vendor store, a break was made after midnight Monday at the Canadian Legion Home in Borden, where two cases of ale, cigarettes, and cash to a total value of about $30 was stolen.

The entry to the Legion was made into the canteen by removing a basement window and smashing through an inner window. In departing from the building the outside window was replaced by the person or persons who committed the theft.

In a previous break at the Legion last fall, similar canteen supplies were stolen. But no arrests were made in connection with the incident.

Duchaine, (Lillian) Bristol with whom he resided and Peter, Ernest and Joseph also of Bristol. The largely attended funeral was held from O'Brien Funeral Home to St. Joseph's Church.

Burial took place in St. Joseph's Cemetery. Pallbearers were all nephews Francis Doucette, Warren Vall, Andrew Benigno, Robert Millar and Gary Cameron, all of Bristol and Robert Theriault of Flushing, Michigan.

Miss Mary Arsenault entered the P.C. Hospital recently for treatment.

FEATHER BUNS
Combine 1/2 c. water, 3 tbs. granulated sugar, 1 tsp. salt and 1/4 c. shortening; beat, stirring constantly, until sugar and salt are dissolved and shortening melted; cool to lukewarm. Meantime, measure into a large bowl 1/2 c. lukewarm water; crumble and add 1 cake Best Yeast—or stir in 1 tsp. granulated sugar and sprinkle with 1 envelope Best dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Your pot of gold can be a LOBSTER POT

YOU'VE all heard the old saying "Live for today and let tomorrow take care of itself." But when your own—and your family's—welfare depends on tomorrow's catch being at least as good as today's . . . well, a thoughtful lobsterman makes sure it will be.

And the way to make sure is so easy. You probably know it already. Just check these points and see:

- Do you throw back the "berried" lobsters?
- Do you throw back the shorts?

If you do next year each short will be 15% longer and 50% heavier.

The lobster business is a big business in the Maritimes. It's one we can all be proud of. But we must make sure it stays big—we must help it grow bigger—by planning today for tomorrow's catch.

If you do that, your lobster pot will be . . . a real pot of gold.
