Lot's Talk It Over

 The Prince Edward Island Musical Festival is growing in popularity each year. It will do more, we think, to get people interested in good music who ordinarily do not respond to cultural activities of this sort than the community concerts which brought in top notch artists, could ever do. The community concert failed in Summerside because, in our humble opinion, people were asked to pay to listen to types of music for which their musical background had left them totally unprepared.

The honest music lovers attending and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The pretenders also came, applauded vigorously, voiced their trumped-up appreciation and suffered boredom cheerfully for the sake of their standing in the community. The other honest group whose music experience did not permit them to enjoy the higher forms of music, bought tickets the first year, perhaps, in order to help out what they knew was a worthwhile community enterprise, but afterwards dropped out.

—HOCKEY BANQUET — The O'Leary Maroons Slayers hockey team held a very enjoyable banquet in Noonan's Restaurant in O'Leary on Thursday evening, May 8. Mr. Bernard in his usual jovial manner expressed his pleasure and appreciation, and Mrs. Bernard joined her husband in thanking family and friends. Messrs. H. F. The Musical Festival, by means of the children, is getting more and more people interested in good music every year. The soil is being prepared, slowly but surely, for an honest appreciation of the best music, and it is our opinion that after a few more years of these Musical Festivals, the Community Concert could come back to Summerside and flourish here.

—ENJOYABLE FUNCTION — The O'Leary Community Hall was packed on Thursday night, May 8 when the Masons of O'Leary held a most enjoyable function entitled "Share the Fun" based on the popular radio show "Share the Wealth". The merchants of O'Leary donated many fine gifts. The master of ceremonies was Ralph Adams assisted by E. W. Turner and others. Mr. Adams was ideal in his role and from 8.30 p.m. to midnight kept the large assembly in gales of laughter and merriment. Many valuable and serviceable prizes were given away, and many in the audience were home happier and wealthier after answering correctly the questions. It was one of the finest entertainments held in O'Leary for a long-time and the Masons are to be highly congratulated on their initiative in giving to the residents of O'Leary and district "Share the Fun". The proceeds were for the Crippled Children's Fund and other charities.—AZ.

—50TH ANNIVERSARY—Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard filled their spacious home at Long River to the doors on Tuesday evening, May 6th, when this highly esteemed couple were waited upon in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary.

PARIS, May 8 — (Reuters) — Capt. Kurt Carlsen of the Flying Enterprise was mobbed by an admiring crowd at a reception in his honor at the Danish embassy to-day. Carlsen is here on a brief visit from Rouen where his new Flying Enterprise II is docked on its first trip to Europe.

Diplomacy and tact are the essential qualities for those who take part at Panmunjom in the Korean peace talks. When a Communist utters not only deliberate, but carefully considered falsehoods, does someone on our side rise up in wrath and say? "You're a liar!" He does not. Instead he refers to the tedious reiteration on the part of the Communists of statements which have no basis in fact. The circumlocution seems to take all the sting out of the insult. When the Communist rises to comment on statements made by the Allies, he will choose his words less carefully, perhaps, but still careful enough not to break any of the rules in this game they are playing. All the world will know, however, that what he really means is: "You're another!"

—SHOWING AT THE CAPITOL — Based on the amazing true-experience story of a dashing undercover man, Warner Bros. "I Was A Communist For The F. B. I." comes to the Capitol screen today.
 The story takes Matt Cvetic, Federal operative, on a dangerous mission into the lair of an espionage ring. To fulfill the requirements of this duty, Cvetic turned his back on all previous connections. He became one of the very people he had been assigned to investigate, a target for the abuse of his friends and the bullets of his enemy, living a lonely, double life until the F. B. I. gave the signal to move in.
 Essaying the real-life role of Matt Cvetic, Frank Lovejoy follows such outstanding portrayals as the sergeant in "Breakthrough" and the wise-cracking photographer in "Goodbye, My Fancy," roles which have made critics hail him as one of the most promising of Hollywood's newer stars.
 Dorothy Hart, the beautiful actress who scored in "Raton Pass" and Philip Carey, the newcomer who debuted in "Operation Pacific, head the featured cast.
