

City Man Faces Jail Break Counts

On two charges of escaping from Queens County Jail, Edward Barrett Jr., Charlottetown, was remanded until Aug. 6 for sentence on both counts by Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC in Queens County magistrate's court Wednesday.

The first breakout took place a few weeks ago, while Barrett was serving a sentence on charges of attempting to steal an automobile, given by city Magistrate A.J. Haslam.

While awaiting sentence on the count, the accused made a second break on July 28. In both cases Barrett elected trial by magistrate and pleaded guilty.

Assault Case

Two residents of North River, William Warren and Keir Warren, accused by Allison M. Gillis, pleaded not guilty to charges of assault, and their cases were adjourned until Aug. 4 to fix a date for hearing.

William Warren is charged with assaulting John Dromore, Charlottetown, by twisting his left arm and tearing his sweater. Keir Warren is charged with assaulting Mr. Jenkins by striking him in the face with a rubber boot.

Pleading guilty to speeding at 70 m.p.h. in 40 m.p.h. and 30 m.p.h. zones on the Brackley St. Road, and passing a truck on the brow of the hill, Francis James Curran, Edmund Bay, was fined $50 and costs or 15 days in jail.

Argument by counsel, John P. Nicholson for the defence and Alan K. Scoble for the crown, was completed in the case of Henry Joseph Kelly, Dromore, and the accused was remanded for sentence until Aug. 20.

Kelly is charged with failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

SPEDERS FINED

At a magistrates' meeting, Cyril Joseph Sullivan, Postage, Lloyd Montgomery Clark, Pinelands, Fred James Barry, West Hill, Charlottetown, and William Lore Walker, East Royalty were each fined $10 and costs or 15 days in jail. Walker was also fined $5 and costs on the second charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's permit.

Failure to bring his motor vehicle to the RCMP for a re-visit.

EASTERN BRIEFS

Three Month Term Given

Appearing for sentence on the charge of stealing three men's sweaters, the property of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., Joseph F. Gallant, Charlottetown, was sentenced to three months in the Queens County Jail by Magistrate A.J. Haslam in city police court Wednesday.

Convicted of being drunk and incapable, Charles A. Gallant, Charlottetown, was sentenced to 30 days in jail. On a second charge, a $100 charge of receiving stolen goods, in which he was bound over to keep the peace for one year on April 1, 1962, also on the same accused was given a second 30 days. This magistrate ordered that the two terms are to be served consecutively.

On a similar charge of drunk and disorderly, John Lawless, Charlottetown, was fined $80 and costs or 40 days in jail.

Red Cross Blood Clinics Are Planned

Plans are now being finalized for the third series of the 1962 Red Cross blood donor clinics which are scheduled for the week of Aug. 20.

P.A. S. Jones, provincial chairman of the Red Cross blood donor committee, stated last night that the following six P.E.I. — 60 donors per hour at the evening and 75 an hour at the afternoon sessions.

This makes for fair competition throughout the province for "The Manning Trophy" awarded each year to the centre exceeding its quota by the highest percentage. It was stated.

The Junior Farmers are heading the arrangements for 11-12 New Glasgow clinic while Ralph MacCarville is again in charge of the committee promoting the one in Kinkora.

Mr. Jones said that the objective for the four-day series of clinics will be at least 1,080 donors. This quota is set on the same basis as for all clinics in P.E.I. — 60 donors per hour at the evening and 75 an hour at the afternoon sessions.

Government officials said Gov. G. Lewis is desiring to see some personal differences with President Kennedy or the United States administration.
