TIGNISH — Red Cross water safety swimming classes held three days at the Tignish Green came to a close on Saturday when 11 students were successful in passing their tests. Out of an enrollment of 98, a very disappointed group of youngsters braved the cold to be tested.

The beginners were only able to enter the water three times due to bad weather. The course this year was sponsored by the Tignish Sports Recreation Association. Leo Broderick was instructor and Frances Ann Cullen, Charlottetown, was examiner. Mrs. Joseph Conway was chairman
