(Continued from page 19) ... The stock market resumed its upward movement in another vigorous session Wednesday. The list was irregularly liquid in early morning trading as it continued Tuesday's mild spell of profit-taking, but stocks moved ahead in heavy trading accompanied by lateness in the tickler tape in the afternoon. Wednesday's advance was the ninth in 12 sessions. The U.S. Budget Bureau forecast a deficit of $7,800,000,000 this year in a series of the $50,000,000 surplus estimated by President Kennedy last January. Brokers said that the forecast and favorable dividend action helped some stocks. Gains of key issues ran from fractions to a deficit in trading. The Dow Jones industrial average gained 7.37 at 630.48. An estimated $4,400,000,000 was added to the N.Y. Stock Exchange, based on the rise in the AP average. Volume rose to 5,500,000 shares compared with 4,550,000 Tuesday. The market advanced on a broad front - tobacco being lagging - and favorable dividend action helped some stocks.
