

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN P. McNALLY

On the morning of August 31st the many friends of Mrs. John P. McNally were sadly shocked and grieved to hear of her sudden passing in her sixty-first year.

She had entered the hospital a few days previously but failed to respond to medical treatment. During her short illness she was visited by her Pastor, Reverend T. E. Butler, and also by Reverend A. MacLellan, Rector of the Holy Redeemer Parish, who administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church to her.

The deceased, who was formerly Louise Trainor, was born and lived in Donagh most of her life, the last year being spent in Charlottetown. She was always considerate, kind and lovable, as was evidenced by the large number of friends who came to pay their last respects to her.

In her home she will be sadly missed for she was most kind, hospitable and charitable. Also in the community she was a very active member of the Women's Institute, being one of the past presidents of the organization. Her parish in general will miss her helping hand as she was always a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church, a member of the Sacred Heart and Altar Societies, as well as a member of the Catholic Women's League. Her outstanding example and true loyalty to all her Christian duties will ever linger in the hearts of her dear ones who mourn her passing.

There are left to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, four daughters; Eulalia (Mrs. Stephen Connolly) Charlottetown; Mary (Mrs. A. A. Doucette) Port Dalhousie, Ontario; Viola (Mrs. Basil Spears) Ketch Harbour, Nova Scotia; and Evelyn (Mrs. Stephen Murnaghan) Bethel; and seven sons: Levi, Johnston's River; Joseph, Montserrat; Joseph and Leonard, Kitchener, Ontario; Leo at home and Clifford and Gerard in Charlottetown.

Also surviving are two sisters, Julia (Mrs. Malachias Callaghan) Charlottetown; Marie (Mrs. Owen Baird) Webster's Corner; and one brother, Leo in Donagh. The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place on the morning of September 2nd to Saint Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, where Solemn Requiem High Mass was sung by her pastor, Reverend Father Butler, assisted by Reverend Dr. L. P. Callaghan as Deacon and Reverend William Simpson as Sub-Deacon. Present in the Sanctuary were Reverend Allan MacDonald and Reverend Vincent Murnaghan.

Services at the grave-side were performed by Reverend T. E. Butler, assisted by Reverend Allan MacDonald. The pallbearers were six sons of the deceased: Levi, Charles, Joseph, Leo, Clifford and Gerard. May her soul rest in peace.

Gohier - Larkin Wedding
A wedding of interest was solemnized in St. Leon's Church, Westmount, P. Q., on August 18th, when Miss Mary Larkin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkin, New Glasgow, P. E. I. became the bride of Mr. Claude Gohier, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gohier, Westmount, P. Q. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with assorted autumn flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Caupland in the presence of close relatives and friends. The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Vernon Matthew, entered the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Margaret Hill. The bride looked very charming in a navy blue suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of red carnations and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. John Cameron, who wore a grey suit with matching accessories. The bride looked very charming in a floor length gown of white satin and tulle. The maid of honour wore pale pink tulle over taffeta, and the bridesmaid wore turquoise blue tulle over taffeta. The bride carried a cascade of American Beauty roses, while her attendants carried nosegays of spring flowers. After a reception which was held at the home of the groom's parents, the happy young couple left on a motor trip to P. E. I. where they visited the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkin in New Glasgow. For travelling the bride chose a pale mauve suit with navy blue accessories.
