HOW THE FRENCH DEAL WITH FRAUD

This is the way they discourage frauds upon the Government in France.

M. and M. Allez, father and son, took a contract to supply water-cans for the army. They sublet to one Maisoneuve.

The cans were rejected as under contract weight. Maisoneuve painted out the rejection mark and brought the cans up to weight by soldering bits of iron to their bottoms.

The fraud was discovered and prosecuted. Allez, father and son, pleaded ignorance of the fraud, but the court held that they ought to have known. It sentenced each of them to three months' imprisonment and a fine of 100 francs. It condemned Maisoneuve, the sub-contractor, to a year's imprisonment and a fine of 100 francs, and it also sent to jail the foreman and clerk who helped to perpetrate the fraud.

DEAD WOMAN RETURNS TO LIFE.

Reprehensible conduct on the part of a supposed corpse was the cause of a serious accident to two women in the town of Heywood, near London, on Monday last. They were watching by the body of a friend who had died on the previous day. The dead woman had been laid out, measured for her coffin and was ready for burial. Suddenly the corpse blew away the cloth covering her face and sat up. The two watchers fled with wild shrieks. They were in such a hurry to get away that both fell down stairs and lay helpless from their injuries at the bottom, but were still able to give voice to their terror in frightful screams. Many persons came to their aid, but it was a long time before any person dared to go up stairs. Finally several ventured together and the doctor was summoned. The supposed dead woman, recalled her agonies of mind over the preparations for her burial, of which she had been fully cognizant. The shock was too much for her, and a few hours after she died in earnest. The other two women are in the hospital.

Saidso—That depends on the individual; some wouldn't be hurt even by amateur theatricals.

'Nothing,' replied the reporter.

HE WAS AN OARSMAN AND ATHLETE.

Terrible Case of Kidney Trouble.

Mr. Harry Ball Says: "Paine's Celery Compound Saved My Life."

H. BALL.

Mr. H. Ball, the widely known and popular auctioneer of Chatham, Ont., has a grand record as an oarsman and athlete. He was the great figure of the "Chatham four" who held the amateur championship of the Dominion. Mr. Ball has also rowed in singles against the best amateurs of the day.

Unfortunately for Mr. Ball that insidious and deadly trouble, kidney disease, was developed to fearful extent. Mr. Ball was confined to bed for four months, and all the able efforts of physicians failed to check or banish the awful disease. The work of banishing disease and cheating death of a victim was left to the life-renewing powers of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Ball writes thus:—

On August 6th, 1892, I was so seriously ill I was obliged to take to my bed, where I laid for four months. The doctors here and in Toronto said my trouble was Addison's disease of the kidneys, and told me I would never walk again. In November of the same year I commenced to use Paine's Celery Compound. After having used a number of bottles I was enabled to attend to business, and felt like a new man. Before using the Compound I was very much reduced in flesh; to-day I weigh over 200 pounds. I can affirm with confidence and honesty that Paine's Celery Compound saved my life.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Death the Invariable Result of Neglected Kidney Disease.

Lower Jordan Bay, N. S. Jan. 21—The majority of human ailments can be traced, either directly or indirectly, to a diseased condition of the kidneys. Kidney disease may not be suspected for the reason that these organs have few nerves of sensation, and may be even in a codition of advanced disease before the true condition is discovered. Ninety per cent. of all disease may be prevented by using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Samuel Locke's case, which caused such wide-spread interest throughout this province, is a case in point. The price at which Dood's Kidney Pills are sold places them within the reach of all. They may be procured from all dealers at fifty cents per box or six boxes for $2.50. Take no imitations.

Kitty—You know that when two people are deeply in love they are eager to perform some act of self-sacrifice in order to prove their devotion to each other.

Tom—Yes; that is supposed to have been the origin of marriage.

Hands and Ankles Raw.

For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt rheum. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment allayed the burning, itching sensation. One box and a half entirely cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Parmenter, St. Catharines, Ont.

A serious shooting affray took place lately at Kilmacow, about four miles from Waterford. A farmer named Nolan had an altercation with a man servant. Words led to blows, and Nolan going into the house returned with a revolver, with which, it is alleged, he lodged a bullet in the servant's head.

All About Phosphorous.

Phosphorous is one of the most potent life giving principles, and is found abundantly in the Norwegian Cod Liver. Combined with hypophosphites of lime and soda, it forms the wonderful blood creator known in science. Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil produced from the Norwegian fish is the finest preparation of this oil in the world. Its flesh and blood producing qualities enables the sufferer to gain the mastery over consumption and commence a new life under higher physical conditions. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula and all Lung affections. In Big Bottles, 50c. and $1, at all Drug Stores.

With Invalids.

Yes! with invalids the appetite is capricuous and needs coaxing, that is just the reason they improve so rapidly under Scott's Emulsion, which is as palatable as cream.

A remarkable cure.—J. W. Jennison, Gilford spent between $200 and $300 in consulting Doctors: tried Dixon's and all other treatments but got no benefit. One box of Chase's Catarrh Cure did me more good than all other remedies, in fact I consider myself cured, and with a 25 cent box at that.
