

MAGNIFICENT SPECTACLE IS SEEN

Popes Vigorous Efforts
Wins Union Of All Mankind

VATICAN CITY (CP)—The greatest assembly of Roman Catholic prelates in history opened Thursday with a call for Christian unity by Pope John XXIII, the white-robed central figure in a stirring display of earthly grandeur and spiritual dedication.

He urged vigorous efforts toward union of mankind in truth. "Divine providence is leading us to a new order of human destiny," he said, "the fulfillment of God's superior and inscrutable designs."

The Pope's first ecumenical council in a century. A lavish and majestic spectacle, surging with devotion, marked the outset in St. Peter's Basilica of the council the Pope called with the immediate aims of considering internal reforms and helping the church keep pace with the modern world.

Beyond that, the hopeful hearts of many, it is a prelude to reunification of the Christian faith.

"Almighty God," the Pope prayed, "in Thee we place all our confidence, not trusting in our own strength."

10,000 IN BASILICA
Altogether, about 10,000 churchmen and guests were seated in the enormous basilica, brilliantly lighted and decorated in red, white and gold.

As the Pope spoke, a throng estimated at 100,000 stood close-packed in St. Peter's Square.

URGES DILIGENCE
He urged diligent effort, "so that there may be fulfilled the great mystery of that unity, which is the goal of our Christian fervent prayer from His Heavenly Father on the eve of His ascension."

The 80-year-old Pope seemed pale in the glare of the floodlights. His eyes were closed. A great white cape, sparkling with gold and jewels, draped over his shoulders.

How beautiful are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of righteousness, in the towering domes, high in gilt and mosaics, the sun poured through the windows, forming a shimmering nimbus above the tall, marble altar where the Pope sat on his throne.

SIT IN TWIN THIRDS
Bishops, patriarchs, metropolitans, abbots, cardinals and archbishops from all over the world sat in twin facing tiers along the nave. Their peaked white mitres and snow-crested mitres were dazzling against a backdrop of scarlet tapestries.

These men were the captains of the biggest branch of Christianity, numbering the earth with 500,000,000 Catholics.

Without knowing it, he asserted that his own efforts and "even human differences" are leading to "the greater good" of the world.

The thesis that man's differences would eventually accrue to the good of the human family, he said, is the issue of all the Christian sects.
