POLITICAL FORUM

PUBLIC HEALTH & WELFARE

Mr.—One of the most important announcements in Premier Jones' pre-election address to the electors was that in connection with the Department of Health and Welfare. This department has now become vastly important not only on account of the serious matter with which it deals, but also on account of the vast expenditure of public revenue in its administration.

Credit must be given where credit is due and it is only right to acknowledge that the present Government has been generous and benevolent-minded in its attitude to those institutions connected with the health and welfare of our people. These institutions include not only our general hospitals in which the Government is indirectly interested, but also and more particularly our Infirmary, our Mental Hospital, our Sanatorium and our Old People's Home, all of which are directly controlled by the Government.

There is no doubt whatever that there is much about our government-owned institutions that is a credit to our Province. Perhaps in a general way they compare favorably with those of any other Canadian Province. There are nonetheless from time to time incidents and abuses connected with these institutions that call loudly for public censure. Political mal-practice at election time when associated with any of these institutions is especially to be abhorred. Let us hope that no rumor or murmur of such mal-practice will be heard in connection with the coming election. Let us hope too, that whatever party is returned to power the administration of the Health and Welfare Department will be for the next term of four years or more above reproach.

I am, Sir, etc.

LIBERAL ROADS

Sir.—Why may I ask, can't we have decent roads on this beautiful island, as the Liberals call it? The roads are a disgrace. Why do they go to the trouble of getting pictures of Ontario mud holes, when you can get them right here on the island, only a bit worse? Ontario is the only Conservative Province and almost one-third of the people go there and get jobs. About fifty people from Tignish alone went to Toronto this fall and got good jobs with good pay.

Why couldn't we up at this end of the island have paved roads? They would have to be paved if they were at least half decent; and also electricity. You may as well have a spark alongside of you trying to read as a kerosene lamp. I had a hard

Fine Concert By Notre Dame Senior Pupils

A large audience enjoyed over two hours of musical entertainment at Notre Dame Academy Auditorium last evening as the Senior Music pupils presented their recital.

At the close of the program, students who had passed their exams for the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto, last June, were presented with their diplomas, and the names of two silver medalists were announced. Receiving these medals for the highest marks in the Maritime Provinces, were Patricia McDonald, Grade 9, piano, and Sheila McInnis, Grade 8, piano.

Highlights of the evening included two American folk dances which were performed by the intermediate students in costume, against a setting of pioneer days. Miss Maureen Blake was the only vocal soloist on the program and completely charmed the audience with her singing of Weber's "When Life Is Maytime," and the beautiful "Les Filles de Cadiz," by Delibes.

Final numbers were a group of choral selections by the Notre Dame Choir. More than forty young ladies, dressed in pastel coloured evening gowns, stood against a background of turquoise silk, and sang three selections to bring the varied and well executed entertainment to a very fitting climax.

Program for the evening was as follows:

A Merry March (Werner): Betty Kelly, Nola Marie McCabe, Regina Gillis, Lorraine Scott. Viennese Nights (Moore): Peter Driscoll.

Waltz (Schumann): Catherine McDonald.

Will Press For Stiff Penalties In Lobster Cases

A more rigid enforcement of the law in sentencing poachers and those who illegally fish underize lobsters was advocated at the quarterly meeting of the Prince Edward Island Fisheries Federation held at the Queen Hotel on Wednesday.

The meeting proposed to send a representative of the Federation into the courts as an interested third party during the more serious cases to press for stiffer and more severe penalties in these cases.

The members viewed with alarm the prevalence of poaching and illegal underize lobsters fishing.

Considerable discussion took place about the recurring complaints which were received about the quality and general appearance of Island canned lobsters.

The secretary, Mr. Walthen Gaudet, was instructed to write all packers in the Province and point out to them the seriousness of the situation. He was also advised to tell them that unless marked improvement was shown this year the Federation would have to ask for compulsory grading inspection in this field.

The next quarterly meeting will be held in Georgetown on the invitation of the members from that area. Mr. Paul Gallant presided over Wednesday's meeting which got underway in the morning with a director's meeting at eleven o'clock followed by an informal lunch at one and the business meeting at 2:30.

The Federation noted with pleasure that the Board of Railway Commissioners had turned down the recent request of the railroads for increased expropriation on fish and passed a motion of appreciation to Mr. B. Graham Rogers for his assistance to Federation on the matter.

A motion of appreciation was also made to the retiring Director of Fisheries, Mr. J. A. Rodd for his valuable service to the fishing industry of the province for the past number of years.

Comprehensive reports on the annual meeting of the Fisheries Council of Canada were given by Messrs. J. B. Myrick, Tignish and L. L. Donnan, Charlottetown.

The Federation agreed to sponsor a float in the parade during Festive Week and a committee was appointed.

Following lunch an interesting film on the manufacture of rope entitled "The Pilgrim Story" was presented through the courtesy of a Halifax firm.

Plays Presented To Capacity House At Winsloe Hall

Two one-act plays, one a drama, the other a comedy, were presented to a capacity crowd in Winsloe Station Hall last night by the Highfield Women's Institute.

Both plays received well deserved ovations from an appreciative audience. Between the plays Mr. Dick Turpin entertained the crowd with reading and humorous skits while a travologue in costume and song was also presented.

"The Brave Shall Serve" was the name of the one-act drama play which was directed by Mr. W. B. Creed. The comedy, "So Early in the Morning," was directed by Miss Doris Kennedy.

Last night's plays were adjudged to be among the finest plays presented by the Highfield Women's Institute. The plays will be presented again tonight.

Candidates Speak In Second Queen's

The platform of the Progressive Conservatives and their aims if elected to office were told to gatherings of voters in the Second Queen's District this week. Tuesday night at Stella Maris Hall, North Rustico, Mr. R. R. Bell, Conservative Leader, addressed a large audience on his plans for government.

He was supported by his fellow candidate in the district, Mr. Philip Matheson, and former Conservative leader Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan. Chairman for the evening was Mr. George LeClair.

The gathering was entertained by several songs by Charlie Chamberlain.

On Wednesday night the candidates spoke at Orange Hall, Brookfield, where Mr. Charles Proud was chairman. The latter meeting was called as a joint meeting, but the Liberal candidates were not present.

MacArthur had made public statements of policy, caused his dismissal and brought him back to the United States for the first time in 14 years to state his case. MacArthur wore an Eisenhower jacket, without decorations. He placed a typed manuscript on the dais.

He said: "I address you with neither rancor nor bitterness." He said that the issues today are "global" and that Asia ranks in equal importance with Europe. "You cannot appease or otherwise surrender to Communism in Asia without simultaneously undermining our efforts to halt its advance in Europe.

Meetings Held In First Queen's

The open political meeting called at Hope River on Tuesday night was well attended, and was addressed by the two Conservative candidates for the First District of Queen's, Messrs. Walter G. MacKenzie and Frank Myers. The Government candidates failed to appear. Other speakers at the meeting were Messrs. John O'Connor and Frederick Simpson, both of Hope River. Mr. Wilbert McAleer presided.

On Wednesday night Messrs. MacKenzie and Myers addressed another open meeting at Hampton, at which Mr. John H. Myers presided. Short speeches were also delivered by Messrs. Melville Bell, DeSable, Donald MacDonald, Augustine Cove, and E. C. Bell, Cape Traverse. As at the previous meeting, the Government candidates did not put in an appearance.

Progress Made On Power Line

Line poles for over half the high tension line between Charlottetown and Summerside have been set. It was learned yesterday from Mr. C. F. Buckingham, Maritime Electric Company engineer. No wire has been strung on the new line yet which will service the R.C.A.F. Station at Summerside.

Work on the line began early in the winter at Northboro. The men worked towards Charlottetown and have set in poles as far as St. Dunstan's University. They are now surveying the land in the vicinity of St. Eleanor's.

Work has slowed up slightly due to the spring weather but the company are endeavouring to keep to their schedule completing the line by August 31.

Reaction To MacArthur Speech

WASHINGTON, April 19—(AP)—The Defence Department said tonight that President Truman removed Gen. Douglas MacArthur from all his commands "upon the unanimous recommendations of the President's principal civilian and military advisers, including the joint chiefs of staff."

This was the military's reply to MacArthur's statement that his proposals for conducting the war in the Far East had been shared by practically every military leader "including our own joint chiefs of staff."

The Defence Department statement did not, however, deny MacArthur's statement.

Health And Welfare Activities Reviewed

The following review of the activities of his Department was given in an address last evening on the political situation by the Hon. A. W. Matheson, Minister of Health and Welfare:

"This evening, on behalf of the Liberal Party, I wish to speak to you about the Department of Health and Welfare which I have administered in the Jones Government for over three years. Although I have almost half an hour of radio time at my disposal, I cannot cover all the items of this Department. During the recent session of the Legislature I spoke about two and one half hours on the Draft address and spent most of the time reviewing the year's work of the Department. During the passing of my estimates in the House of Assembly I spent four and one half hours in the chair. Although all the talk during that period was not mine, I still carried the load by explaining items of expenditure. To attempt a full resume of the work of the Health & Welfare Department since the last election in a thirty minute address is not possible but I will review the highlights for your consideration and guidance when you vote next Thursday.

"In May of 1948 we entered into an agreement with the Federal Government to further the Health program in the Province. This offer was made by the Dominion Government and was accepted by all the Provinces. We set up a Health Planning Commission and the recommendations of this Commission were passed on to me, my Deputy or the Chief Health Officer for approval. Any recommendation to Ottawa would not be accepted unless it was something in addition to what we were doing before April, 1948. I am happy to tell the people of Prince Edward Island that we have the finest record of any Province for new work done.

The singing of "In the Cross of Christ I Glory" and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison, closed the meeting.

Lunch was passed and a social time enjoyed.
