Aberton Area Stages Rally

ALBERTON BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN (The Islander) Mounted Police car and Burke's "Lads and Lassies Pipe Band" headed the gala parade yesterday morning when some 700 students and teachers marched from Aberton Elementary School to the Jacques Cartier Arena as the opening part of a centennial rally. Fifteen schools were represented and each one bore aloft its own banner.

Master of ceremonies, Herbert Leavitt described it as "a momentous occasion. We are not only celebrating an historical event," he said, "but we are actually making history. This is the largest parade ever assembled in Aberton, and probably the largest assembly ever gathered, and it is the first assembly in the new Jacques Cartier Arena." Mayor Leard extended a welcome on behalf of the town of Aberton. Senator O. H. Phillips was a guest speaker. He outlined the events which led up to the Charlottetown conference in 1864, and he told of the problems involved in the meeting. "The men leading this conference faced difficulties," he said, "there was the matter of distance: there were no roads nor railways; most travel was by boat. And there was the problem of uniting a people divided by race and tradition. English, Irish, Scotch and French. It was necessary to instill in them the confidence that all would be respected and that all would be treated fairly. It is a tribute to these leaders that we are now successfully united."

GREAT OPPORTUNITY - Reminding the young people that John A. MacDonald and 47 of the young clerks from his law office in what was then the small town of Kingston, Ont., became enthusiastic about con-
