Wife of British M. P. Held On Drug Charges

MONTREAL (CP)—Mrs. Liliane Pursey Monday was ordered held without bail until Thursday when she will face preliminary hearing on a charge of illegal possession of narcotics.

Wife of a member of the British Parliament and a former Hungarian baroness, Mrs. Pursey pleaded not guilty on arraignment in sessions court and chose jury trial in preference to trial before a judge alone.

Tricement charged her with illegal possession of two vials of sedol, a morphine derivative, and one vial of demerol, a synthetic hydrochloride derivative.

32 HYPO NEEDLES
Roger Ouimet, special crown prosecutor, said RCMP officers who took Mr. Pursey into custody Saturday in a downtown hotel also found 32 hypodermic needles, two syringes and a paper described as a medical prescription for an additional amount of drugs.

raigned Monday was 35-year-old Pierre Robert Lemoyne of Le Maas, France. He entered a similar plea and was also bound over without bail until preliminary hearing Thursday.

Lemoyne was charged specifically with illegal possession of 14 tablets of pantopon, an opium alkaloid. Police said he had been under observation "for some time." In arguing successfully against bail for Mrs. Pursey, Mr. Ouimet said that among her possessions was found a plane ticket for a return to England Sept. 3.
