THE MINISTER'S BRIDE.—A very enjoyable evening was spent in the Lady Fane Hall, Crapaud, Saturday, March 27, when the Tryon Amateur Show Co. of Tryon presented to a large and intelligent audience the well known and popular play The Minister's

Bride, which was heartily enjoyed by each and every one present. Despite the inclemency of the weather the Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity and standing room a great premium. The play being presented in four acts, each appearance being more heartily appreciated and with more real enjoyment. The specialties between acts were well worthy of notice, including songs by Fred Bell and Walter Lea. During intermission home made candy was sold which was partaken of very readily by all present. This has only been the third appearance for the young Amateurs, and it can truly be said, that they are a very promising looking company and deserve much credit for the success they have made in their attempt to put before the people such a popular play. The Guardian joins in wishing them good success in their future appointments. —&

Carmel where he will reside in future. On Tuesday last at the home of the Mt. Carmel Church organist, Mrs. Thadde Poirier, their was held a choir practice, one of the most successful heretofore held. It was one of the series of practices proposed by the choir association in order that the Easter celebration may be more worthy, inspire keener enthusiasm and extend to its utmost the universal joys on the occasion of the day of the resurrection of our Lord. The members of the choir with very few exceptions, came to pour forth a flow of melodious notes and endeavored to perform their respective parts with all energy possible in a heart overflowing with the joys of the coming celebration. —R.

PLEASANT AFFAIR.—The members of the Alpha Rebekah Lodge, of this city, together with a number of visitors, held a very successful and enjoyable surprise party on Tuesday evening in the Lodge rooms. There was a large attendance. The programme opened with a selection by the Alpha Orchestra. This was followed by a very amusing twenty minutes' comedy, entitled "A Heavy Shower," in which the parts were taken by Messrs. Alberta Stewart, Mattie Van Buren and Harry Essory, and Messrs. Lloyd Carlton and Thornton Sterns. The closing number of this part of the entertainment was a selection by the "Kitchen Orchestra," directed by Mr. W. T. Wellner. The instruments consisted of well known kitchen utensils extemporised into banjos, violins, cornets, trombones, drums, etc. The great effect was certainly startling, and the performers were vociferously cheered. The originator of the clever and novel idea was Miss Florence Wright. The rest of the evening was mainly taken up with a whist tournament, the prizes being won as follows:—Ladies, first prize,

LONDON, March 28.—Lord Rothschild underwent a serious surgical operation Saturday morning. A bulletin issued tonight said that the patient had borne the operation well and that his condition was satisfactory.

FORGET SHELLING FOR FOOTBALL.

LONDON, March 29.—A sergeant of the Army Service Corps writes: "Our football ground is just behind a church not far from the trenches, and twice we have had to fill in shell holes before we could start to play. At the last match the last shell the Germans fired came plump on the centre of the ground about ten minutes before we kicked off. One soon forgets about shelling when the play starts. Our troops here call this a ragtime war and they are about right, I think, because Tommy takes every thing as it comes—football or shelling. It's all one to him."
