DAILY MARKET QUOTATIONS

SUMMARY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Toronto — Market sharply lower, trading moderate.

New York — Market lower; trading slow.

Montreal — Market lower; trading active.

CURRENCY

MONTREAL (CP)—The U.S. dollar closed at a premium of 7 21-32 per cent in terms of Canadian funds, unchanged from Wednesday's close. Pound sterling closed at $3.01½, up 1-16.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—A gust of late selling sent a moderately declining stock market to a sharp loss Thursday.

Trading was moderate but the tickers ran late in the closing minutes when traders began to unload.

The news background was mixed. Although it included a gain in department store sales and a scheduled rise in auto output, it also showed a downward fluctuation in new orders for durable goods and Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon's statement that the prosptctive U.S. budget deficit will not be inflationary.

Since fear of inflation has been one of the major forces behind the bull markets in recent years, this statement was no tonic for Wall Street. The market opened mixed, edged off slightly by mid-session and remained only a bit lower until the final selling.

The late weakness clipptd an estimated $2,000,000,000 from the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the fall of the Associated Press average. The AP 60-stock average dropped 1.5 to 222.6.

DOW AVERAGE DOWN

The Dow Jones industrial average fell 5.44 to 601.65, bringing it close to the psychologically important 600 ltvel.

The volatile-growth issues showed losses of around 2 to 4 points.

Volume rose to 3,350,000 shares from 2,950,000 Wednesday.

Ford was the worst loser among the auto shares, dropping a point.

Among other Canadian stocks, Hudson Bay Mining and Distillers Seagrams were down ⅝. Granby Mining was off ⅜. Lower by ¼ were Aluminium Ltd and Canadian Pacific. McIntyre Porcupine was ¼ higher.

Prices were mostly lower on the American Stock Exchange. Shawinigan was off ⅜ and Canadian Marconi ¼. Scurry Rainbow Oil fell ⅛.

Closing sales: Industrials 142,900; mines and oils 478,100.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Weakness gripped the stock market Thursday, as the industrial list took its most severe pounding in two months.

Widespread losses drove the main list down more than four points on index; base metals fell a point.

Hardest hit was International Nickel—listed on both the industrial and base metal indexes The stock dropped 2⅝ to 62, in a continuation of a decline that began when the company announced a reduction in its nickel output.

Investors turned a disappointed eye on Gatineau Power and Shawinigan, following announcements that Quebec Premier Jean Lesage has plans to nationalize certain provincial electric utilities if he is successful in a November election.

Gatineau slipped to 28¾—lowest prie of 1962—before rising to 28⅞, down 1⅛. Shawinigan fell ⅜ amid moderately active turnover.

ROYALITE ACTIVE

Most active industrial issue was Royalite Oil, showing a whopping 68,000-share volume—much of this coming in a special transaction in which 64,850 share changed hands at $15 net. The stock remained unchanged on the day, closing at 14¾.

On the exchange index, industrials fell 4.48 to 540.79, base metals 1.09 at 179.54 and western oils .17 at 111.37. Golds resisted the general weakness, rising .13 to 91.56. Closing volume was 3,745,000 shares compared with 3,569,000 Wednesday.

Among base metals, Steep Rock declined 20 cents to a 1962 low of $4.50. Falconbridge fell ½ and Consolidated Mining and Smelting and Denison ⅛ each.

In the speculative market, Newnorth Mines continued its recent decline, falling 19 cents to 40 cents. Other active issues included Nealon, Tormont and Bibis Yukon—all showing slight drops.

OBITUARY

ALVIN GEORGE ROBERTSON

Friends and relatives were shocked and saddened on Sept. 4th when news came of the fatal accident of Alvin George Robertson in Oshawa, Ontario at the early age of 23 years. He was returning from a trip to Boston and had resided in Oshawa for five years where he was a carpenter.

He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. John W. Robertson, Kingsboro, Prince Edward Island, two brothers, Arnett and Gordon, also of P.E.I. a sister Lyla and a brother Athol both at Oshawa and a brother Sterling at Odessa, Ontario. A memorial service was held at the Armstrong Funeral Home and was conducted by Rev. A.E. Larke. The remains arrived home and a large funeral under the direction of Dingwell Bros., Souris was held at Kingsboro Baptist Church of which he was a member. The service was conducted by Rev. M. Smith assisted by Rev. F.M. Mollins who both brought words of comfort to the bereaved. The hymns sung were: "Going down the Valley" and "There's a garden where Jesus is calling" and a special solo by Mrs. Smith.

An abundance of flowers bore a silent tribute to his memory.

The flower bearers were Ian Macgregor, Merton Bruce Robert Bruce, Weston Coffin, Glen Robertson, Richard Ching.

The pall-bearers were: Arthur Stewart, Weston Rose, Walter Ching, Edward Ching, Gordon Ching, Ethan Garrett, and he was peacefully laid to rest in the church cemetery.

A beautiful memory of him will live on and we must be content to say "Thy will be done."

On that happy golden shore,
Where the faithful part no more,
And the storms of life are o'er
We'll meet there.

learning to be leaders

This summer, 100 boys from Y.M.C.A.'s all over Canada spent two happy weeks camping at Lake Couchiching. They were select members of the Y Leadership Corps and their stay meant plenty of hard work, for, in addition to learning new skills, they had to learn how to teach them to others back home. This Saturday Weekend Magazine brings you the story of their strenuous, rewarding two weeks. Be sure not to miss it.
