NEWS FROM QUEBEC.

The Artillery Competition.

HOW THE ISLANDERS WORKED.

SOME COMPLIMENTARY REMARKS.

QUEBEC, Sept. 13.

The Garrison Artillery Competition is still in progress and will last till Saturday. Prince Edward Island detachment shifts were very remarkable for admirable precision and drill displayed. The detachment consisted of a very fine body of men and the easy manner in which they handled the gun gave evidence of a good deal of careful practice. The 58-cwt. gun was rolled right up by them on the carriage without a hitch of any kind, when, just as it should have slipped into its place, it dropped down alongside the carriage in the very middle of the detachment. This contre temps was exceedingly disheartening, not only to the competitors' team, but also to the spectators, who were greatly interested in the splendid handling of the gun by this detachment, and expected to see extra good time made. But for the accident just described the detachment would have done the shifting in 3.30. The fall of the gun in the middle of the detachment was startling to many old artillerymen present, who knew of the dangerous character of these shifts. Most miraculously nobody was hurt. Undismayed by the disaster, the detachment immediately went to work to replace the gun in position. The time occupied in the shift was somewhere about 8 minutes, though the most difficult part of the shift had to be gone over twice, besides rolling the gun back from the place where it fell. "B" shift was made by this detachment in four minutes. It was a beautiful piece of drill, and again earned for the P. E. Island boys hearty applause and congratulations of the spectators. Halifax did the "A" shift in 4m. 11s. "B" shift in 3m. 45s. The following are the scores of Thursday in the 40-pounders: No. 5, Montreal, 56 pts.; No. 3, Montreal, 26; No. 1, P. E. Island, 70; No. 2, P. E. Island, 68; No. 3, P. E. L., 73.

Halifax Happenings.

HALIFAX, Sept. 13.

A roofer tripped over a telephone wire while repairing a building. While falling, his arm went into the pot of boiling pitch, which took the flesh off at once. He suffered awful agony and is now unconscious. The S. P. C. A. have received letters from Caledonia, Queen's County, that a woman there was held firmly while three teeth were extracted. She prayed the men holding her to desist. Morphine was administered and she fell asleep and never awoke. They will investigate the matter.
