Mother's Day was fittingly observed at the morning service in Montague United Church. The congregation was again favoured by having the Junior Oho' lead them in their song of worship.

The boys and girls dressed in their white gowns paraded into the church from the lower door leading from the classroom. They marched up the front aisle and took their respective places in the choir loft.

As a special number, the choir sang "Children of Jerusalem." Dr. MacKenzie spoke to the children using three stories to illustrate a Mother's love for her children and then comparing that love to the love Jesus Christ has for all of us.

After the benediction the children receded to the classroom singing as a recessional, "Around The Throne of God in Heaven." Many thanks are due their director, Mr. Malcolm Patterson for supervising them to take an active part in the service.

Miss Hazel Yeo, who graduated from Acadia University this year, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Yeo Montague.
