

What's Happening With Residence Life

The pins were flying at the Basilica Rec Centre bowling alley when the residence life committee hit the lanes with a bowling tournament on Sat., Oct. 14th. Seven teams of residence students from Marian and Bernadine Halls bowled up a storm that day (where were you Blanchard Hallers???)

With over a 200 point spread between first and second place, nobody was able to touch the "Untouchables" with Alan "The Storm" Ripley, Paul "Horseshoe" Madryga, and Terry "Killer" Trainor. In second place was "The Fourth Floor Fig Fritters" with Taryn "Bouncer" O'Brien, Angela "Bomber" Penderast, and Keren "Striker" Norton. "The Screammers" came in third place with the dynamic trio of Kim "I can't yell 'cause I have a cold" Wells, Heather "I yell for ya, Kim" Riehl, and Kevin "Boomer" Gallant (not the race-track dude). In fourth was "The Little Rascals" with Scott "Whiner" Harper, Chris "Tigger" Deas, and Eric "Elmer Fudd" Chase. "The Leftovers" placed fifth overall with Jennifer "Great West Wind" Wightman, Richardo "Sanchez" Gallant, Don

"The Driver" Large, and Cathy "Gutter Ack!" Ronahan. In sixth place was "The Western Connection" with Dean "Shaker" Getson, Nancy "Nice Form" Cahill, and Joanne "Oh joy, oh bliss" Cahill. Last, but not least, was "The Half A - Bowlers" with James "The Juicer" Helmer, Brian "The Bruiser" Langille, and Sonya "No knees" Beaton. The last place team won three lovely bowler's cryin towels donated by the Basilica Rec Centre. A total of $22 was raised from this event for the PEI Catscan Fund.

The Residence Life Committee raised an additional $23 for the Catscan by sellin the spoils of their apple pickin spree in Lower Montague on Sunday, Oct. 15th. Residence students from Bernadine and Blanchard Halls (where were you Marian Hallers???) went sight-seeing in the eastern part of our beautiful island (while some of us slept, right Lois!!) and had some fun picking apples at Haneveld's U-Pick Apple Orchard. Newton's Law of Gravity was demonstrated to the students at the orchard. Annette Colbourne went so far as to climb an apple tree and drop apples on her roomate's, Tracey Gallant, head.

Everyone that participated in the weekend's affairs enjoyed themselves. So keep your eyes open for the Residence Life Committee's next events and don't miss out on the fun. Also don't forget to "Back the Cat".

P.S. A special thanks to our van drivers for the weekend; Don Large, Paula Authier, and Steven Richard.

Hall Happenings

Greetings once again, Big Dogs,

This week, we send our thanks to the Residence Life Committee for putting on another fun-filled afternoon of bowling at the Basilica Rec. Centre on Saturday, Oct. 14. From the vanload of Marian/Bernadine Hallers who went to the lanes, there emerged victorious a team of three. Terry "Killer" Trainor bowled consistently Saturday afternoon, chalking up a tournament-high 261 in the second game. Also wielding a hot arm was team captain Alan "The Storm" Ripley. Paul "Horseshoes" Madryga completed the trio, tossing a career-high 216. Together, the three outdistanced the competition with a three-game total of 1605 points. Many thanks to all who participated Saturday afternoon.

Thanks should also be given to all those who participated in the winning team's Truly Awesome victory party Saturday night. Does anybody know what happens when you cross a 26 oz. bottle of refreshments with someone who is allergic to it? Just ask "Tigger" Deas, who finally stopped bouncing at about 2:00 AM. (I wonder if he's found the other half of his eyebrow yet....) Mention should be made that a certain senior was rumoured to have been over (Way over!) the weather (and the legal limit) Saturday night. Considering the manner in which he had been dancing, some residents found it suprising that nobody had stuffed money in his shorts! We would also like to send out regards to Terry T., who seems to be short a few leg hairs; we understand that he'll soon be scouting Bernadine Hall for some additions to his wardrobe. We are quite sure, however, that the next time he tries to kick a habit, he won't be laying bets on it!
