CRUISE FOR GUESTS

Modern Steel Trawler Available For Inspection

Today and Sunday the modern steel stern trawler "Gulf Gunn" will be available for free inspection by the general public at the railway wharf in Charlottetown. On Monday the smart new addition to the Georgetown fishing fleet will be on display at Summerside.

Friday at noon the Gulf Gunn set out from Charlottetown with a group of guests for a cruise out into Hillsborough Bay which included, naturally, a seafood luncheon of fish chowder and Gulf of St. Lawrence shrimps.

Gene Gorman, deputy provincial minister of fisheries, saw the departure of the official party, which included Mayor Walter Cox of Charlottetown, Cecil Miller, Manager Charles W. Moffatt of the Charlottetown Board of Trade and a number of local business and professional men and government functionaries.

Coroner's Jury Gives Decision

GEORGETOWN — The coroner's inquest into the death of Blair Joseph Johnston, Phillip Maurice Johnston and Wayne John Arsenault, all of Rosemeath, who met sudden death in a two-car collision on the night of July 2, 1966, was held in the court house in Georgetown on Thursday night with chief coroner, Dr. Lemuel E. Prowse of Charlottetown presiding.

The crown was represented by Kings County Crown Prosecutor, Gordon G. Tweedy. The six-man jury brought in a verdict that the three youths came to their deaths on July 2, 1966, between the hours of 10.30 p.m. and 12.00 p.m. as the result of injuries received in a two-car collision on Queens Road in Victoria Cross in Kings County.

Seven witnesses gave evidence. They were Cpl. William H. Smith of the Charlottetown Detachment of the RCMP who is in charge of the identification branch. His evidence dealt with photographs taken at the scene of the accident and a sketch plan of the highway; Constable W.A. Dewsnap of the Montague detachment of the RCMP told of proceeding to the scene and seeing the 1966 Dodge car and a 1956 Ford car in the ditch. Later evidence showed that the Dodge car was driven by Ralph Alexander Beck of Montague and the Ford car by Blair Joseph Johnston; Beck survived the accident and gave evidence. Neither Beck or Wayne Peter Johnston, a passenger in the Johnston car could remember any details of the accident; Glen McCabe of Iona, who happened on the scene immediately following the accident; Barry Kenneth Morris of Charlottetown, who also arrived at the accident shortly afterwards; William Malcolm MacLure of Montague, a mechanic who examined both vehicles.

The three Johnston boys along with Arsenault were all driving in the 1956 car which was operated by one of the deceased, Blair Joseph Johnston.

Evidence showed that the driving conditions were good, that the Beck car was in very good mechanical condition and the Johnston car had bad braking equipment.

Members of the jury were Gilbert R. Clements, foreman; Kenneth Ewen MacPhee, Kenneth Stewart Clements, Albert Garth Gillis, John Shaw and Victor Pepler, all of Montague.

Supreme Court Gives Decisions

The Supreme court handed down two decisions yesterday morning.

The appeal of Mathias Francis Malone Kelly's Cross, on a charge of impaired driving, was allowed, while the appeal of Nelson Kennedy, Charlottetown, on a similar charge was dismissed. Judgments were handed down by Mr. Justice George A. Tweedy and Mr. Justice Mark R. MacGuigan.

EASTERN FUNERALS

ROSS FUNERAL — The funeral for Mrs. Neil Ross of Dundas was held on Thursday afternoon from the United Church, Dundas where service was conducted by Rev. James Forbes. The hymns sung were The Lord Is My Shepherd and Unto The Hills. A solo, When I've Gone The Last Mile Of The Way was rendered by Herb MacLeod. A duet, The Old Rugged Cross was rendered by Herb MacLeod and Roy Howlett. The flower bearers were Willey Judson, Robert Jackson, John James MacDonald, Archie Livingston, Earl MacDonald and Angus MacLean. Pallbearers were Ernest Gorman, Elmer Livingston, John C. MacBeth, Ralph MacDonald, Haddon MacLeod, Willie MacKenzie. Interment was in the Church cemetery.

GEORGETOWN — A large docket was before Provincial Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, at Georgetown Thursday. Kings County Crown Prosecutor G. Gordon Tweedy, represented the crown in all cases.

Alfred Crane of Peakes, represented by Kenneth MacDonald, was found guilty of proceeding into an intersection where there was a yield sign before it was safe to do so and was fined $15 and costs. Giving evidence for the crown were Garry Blair MacKenna, Mary MacKenna and Constable James Carina, Montague Detachment of the RCMP. A car-truck collision resulted from the incident at the intersection of the Martinvale Road and the Seven Mile Road.

Albert Joseph MacPhee of Georgetown pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs for impaired driving.

Edison Paul Collings of Sturgeon, charged with dangerous driving and represented by Bert Campbell had his case adjourned to September 15.

Douglas Christom MacMaster of Dundas, charged with impaired driving had his case adjourned one week to obtain legal counsel.
