IN MEMORIAM

DUNSFORD—In loving memory of Winston Dunsford who died Sept. 13, 1950.
September brings bad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest
But will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved him best.
Lovingly remembered by his family.

BURKE—In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Margaret A. Burke, who passed away August 11th, 1953.
Sometimes its hard to understand why somethings has to be
But in this wisdom God has plowed beyond our power to see,
In our hearts your memory lingers and we know its vain to weep,
Tears of love can never wake you
From your peaceful happy sleep.
Ever remembred and sadly missed by mother, father, brother and sisters.

MacCANNELL—In loving memory of my brother John R. MacCannell who passed away September 12, 1954.
Just beyond life's gate way.
In a garden bright and fair.
We will meet and there'll be.
No parting there.
Pain and sorrow will be blemished,
Gone all heartaches and all fears,
Just beyond life's gate way.
Where they will count not time but years.
Always remembered by Sister Janie.

MacRAE—In loving memory of my father, Mr. John MacRae, who departed this life September 12, 1956,
In a graveyard softly sleeping,
Close beside a country road,
Lies the father I loved so dearly
Gone from me to his abode,
Sheltered in the rock of ages
Anchored on the golden shore
In the arms of Jesus
Rests my dear father forever more.
Lovingly remembered by his daughter Hazel.

MacRAE—In loving memory of my husband John A. MacRae, who was killed in a truck and train accident September 13, 1956.
He bade no one his last farewell,
He said good-bye to none;
The heavenly gates were opened,
A lovely voice said some.
I often sit and think of you,
The things you used to say,
I wonder why you had to die,
Without a chance to say goodbye
Though out of sight, you're ever
Still missed, still loved, still mine,
You will live with me in memory,
Until the end of time.
Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by wife Ida.

Build Midget Car For Prince

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A child-sized racing car is being assembled as a gift for Prince Charles.

A spokesman for Pan American World Airways, which will deliver the tiny vehicle this week, gave this account Monday:

Charles (Chuck) Raabe, 8, of suburban South Gate, whose first name and age are the same as the prince's is champion quarter-midget auto racer.

The quarter-midget racing cars are about three feet long, weigh 160 pounds, are powered by a one-cylinder gasoline lawnmower engine, have hand brakes and transmission and go 10 to 30 mph.

A month ago Chuck read an item saying Prince Charles had been given an electric train which did not work. He decided that the prince might like to see what kids his age in America are doing.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. EDWARD HUGHES

It is with deepest sympathy we chronicle the death of Mrs. Edward Hughes which occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on August 9, 1957, at the advanced age of eighty-four years.

Born in Fort Augustus, the daughter of the late Patrick Seward and Rose Evans. The deceased resided in Fort Augustus, until age of twelve years when the family moved to Dromore. At the age of twenty-one she married Edward Hughes a union which lasted until 1942. When the angel of death claimed for its victim her beloved husband. Their marriage was blessed with seven children of which two sons namely Harold and Frederick predeceased her some years ago.

She leaves to mourn four sons and one daughter namely: James, Clarktown; Ernest, Tarantum; Frederick, Trenton, N.S.; Seymour, in homestead; Marquerite, Mrs. Frank Murphy; Worcester, Mass. Twenty seven grand children and twenty great grand children.

In her later years the deceased had spent the winters with her son Fred in Nova Scotia, always returning in June. On July 30th, she took sick and developed pneumonia then other complications set in. She was transferred to the Charlottetown Hospital and despite adequate medical attention and tender nursing she passed peacefully away thus culminating a week of failing health.

During her illness, she was visited frequently by her pastor, Rev. T. P. Butler who administered to her the last rites. She was also visited by Rev. Fr. Callaghan and Rev. Fr. MacLellan.

Margaret as she was better known was always ready to give a helping hand in time of need, a good neighbor and will always be remembered for her friendly manner and her kindly smile which made her a favourite with all.

The funeral services were held in St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Vincent Murnaghan, deacon and sub-deacon were: Rev. T. P. Butler and Rev. Allan McDonald. Pall bearers were: Messrs. Chester Hughes, Joseph Callaghan, Clarence Mitchell, Jack Doyle, Clifford McGuirk.

Interment was in church cemetery where services were conducted by Rev. T. P. Butler.
