"WHEN IN ROME" AT CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

Van Johnson and Paul Douglas, two of Hollywood's foremost stars, each with a string of recent successes to his credit, team for the first time in M-G-M's "When in Rome," a warm human and different comedy-drama, which opened yesterday on the Capitol screen. Story of a young priest and a racketeer who become enmeshed in an unusual adventure after they find themselves cabinates on a boat taking them to Rome, the new picture was filmed on location and the beautiful and historic edifices of the Eternal City, with additional scenes filmed at the seaport of Genoa. It was produced and directed by Clarence Brown.

Van Johnson's role as the young priest follows his recent hits in "Three Guys Named Mike," "Go For Broke!" and "Too Young to Kiss." Paul Douglas comes to his new characterization as the racketeer from his widely-praised role as the baseball manager of "Annapolis in the Outfield." Previous to that he scored in "Letter to Three Wives," "14 Hours" and "Panic in the Streets."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. GEORGE G. GLOVER

The death of Mrs. George G. Glover on January 19th, at her home in Norboro, came as a shock to her many friends and relatives, for though well past the three score years and ten, she enjoyed good health and was active in the home until less than a week before her death. During her brief illness she was tenderly cared for by her daughters.

The late Mrs. Glover, formerly Alicia Jane Heaney, was born in Clinton in 1869. After her marriage in 1890, she came to live in Norboro, where by her unselfishness and neighborliness she gained the love and respect of all who knew her. No one in need was ever turned from her door, whether the need was a material one, or whether the need was for a message of cheer and encouragement. Many in sickness have been relieved by her capable hands. Her faithfulness in the home and her devotion to her family will leave a deep impression on her children and grandchildren.

She was always a strong supporter of the church, of which she was a member for many years, and through the years her pastors found a visit with her an inspiration. Her cheerful personality endeared her to all who knew her. The example of this truly Christian woman will live long in the hearts of family and friends.

She leaves to mourn three daughters, Harriet, at home; Beulah, Mrs. James H. Andrews, Hunter River; Flora, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Norboro; and five sons, Cecil in Ontario; Roland and William in Saskatchewan; Everett, Norboro and David in the home. Four sons and one daughter predeceased her. There are eighteen grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren. Also left to cherish the memory of a kind elder sister, are four sisters and one brother, Mrs. William Sharpe and Mrs. F. Day, Norboro; Mrs. J. T. Dignan, Charlottetown; Mrs. John Whitehead and Wesley Heaney, Clinton.

Flowers, which she loved in life, banked the casket at the funeral service which was held from the home on January 22nd. The funeral was attended by a large number of relatives and friends from near and far. Her pastor, Rev. L. Murray, of Kensington United Church, who visited her during her illness, conducted the service. His comforting message was based on Luke 2: 29. He spoke feelingly of the rich and faithful contribution to her church and her community. Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung, "The Lord is My Shepherd," "Alas, and Did My Saviour Bleed," and "Peace, Perfect Peace."

The pallbearers were Messrs. Lindsay Sharpe, Gordon Day, Gerald Glover, William Heaney, Harry Whitehead and Edison Heaney, all nephews of Mrs. Glover. Interment was in Margate Cemetery, beside her husband who predeceased her over eleven years ago.

Address and Presentation

The following address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Riley at their home in Clinton, recently, by Mr. Ian Henderson on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, when friends and relatives gathered from the neighboring districts to tender them congratulations and best wishes:

"Dear Willard and Jean: Your friends and neighbours could not let an opportunity like this go by without some expression of our esteem and of the high regard in which you are held in this community.

"Wherever there has been need of strength and comfort, you have always been ready to extend a helping hand, and through the years your home has been a place of gracious welcome and warm friendship.

"We have always counted on your support in every effort for the good of the community at large. Your faithful attendance at church and interest in her various activities serve as an example to us all.

"We might express regret that the duties of Frank's profession make it necessary for him to be away on this occasion, but we understand that before very long he will be with you again.

"Heartly congratulations on reaching this milestone in your life, and may you enjoy many more anniversaries in the years ahead.

"In the hope that it may convey to you, in a manner better than words, something of our friendship and esteem we ask you to accept this small gift which is now presented to you with every good wish."

Mr. Louis O'Connor, as master of ceremonies, in a brief speech expressed his happiness at being present on this occasion, and Rev. D. A. Campbell extolled the good qualities of the bride and groom of twenty-five years. Mr. George MacKay made the presentation of a 400-day clock and substantial sum of money. A number of personal gifts were also received.

Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies, after which a sing-song with Mrs. Harold Moase, pianist, and Mr. Harry Marks, violinist, was greatly enjoyed.

One regret of the friends present was the unavoidable absence of their only son, Frank, who is a bank clerk in Kingston, Jamaica.
