A sincere thank you to all.
The Dalton family.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

CHARLES A. MORRISON

The death occurred, after a lengthy illness, at the P. E. I. hospital of Charles Albert Morrison, Roseberry.

He was born at Roseberry in 1878, son of the late Ann MacRae and Murdoch Morrison.

Although in failing health for some time, he always had a warm handshake and smile for his many friends who came to visit with him.

He leaves to mourn, besides his sorrowing wife, May Stewart, five sons and one daughter, Ann, Mrs. Colin MacColl, Eldon, Murdoch, North Pinette William, Vancouver, B.C. Laurie at home, Ernie, Belle River, and John in Roseberry, also nine grandchildren of whom he was very fond. He also leaves to mourn one brother Neil of Mt. Buchanan and one sister, Mrs. N. S. Morrisom, South Pinette, one brother John and two sisters Dianna and Catherine, predeceased him.

The funeral, which was from the home, was largely attended. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Donald Nicholson of St John's Church, Belfast. Hymns sung were "The Lord is my Shepherd" and, "There is no night in Heaven."

Pallbearers were: Hector Morrison, Lloyd Morrison, John Morrison, Roderick MacRae, Russel Panton and Adam Wight.

Flowerbearers were: Donald Ross, Hector Panton, Walter Bell, Albert Larsen and Norman Birt.

Interment was in Belfast Cemetery.

The many floral tributes showed the esteem in which he was held:
Pillow — The family
Grandchildren
Belle, Neil and family
Laura, Jim and family
Hector, Elizabeth, Janie and Colin
Effie and Nellie
Norman, Bessie and family
Margaret, Elmer, and family
North Pinette W. I.
Jean, Barbara, Harold and Earl
Douglas Sorrey and Murray Jackson
Minnie, Vivian and Lloyd

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Charles A. Morrison and family wish to express their sincere thanks to Dr. Gillis, Dr. Putnam, nurses and staff of the P. E. I. Hospital. To Rev. Donald Nicholson and to all those who visited, sent flowers, cards and letters of sympathy.
A sincere "thanks" to all.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

JEROME SMITH

In the early morning hours of Nov. 25, 1962 there passed peacefully away at Brookvale the soul of Jerome Smith, one of the oldest residents of Kelly's Cross Parish in his 84th year. He was the last surviving member of a large family. He was the son of the late John Smith. Being deprived of his father at the early age of 16 years, he with his younger brother Leo carried on the business of farming for a number of years. While quite young men like many other Islanders they went to Denver, Colorado. In about a year he returned to his native province where he remained until his death.

Not enjoying the best of health these past few years he came to live with his daughter Rose where he remained until his death. On Nov. 12 he developed pneumonia from which he failed to recover, despite all that medical skill and tender care could do seemed of no avail.

His wife predeceased him 8 years ago. During his illness he was frequently visited by his pastor Rev. James Smith, who administered to him the last rites of the Catholic Church of which he was a member.

In his passing he leaves to mounr the loss of a loving father, 6 sons and 6 aughters. The sons are Joseph, Leo, Anthony, St. Clair, Linus, Francis. The daughters are: Helen, Mary, Rose, Margaret, Rita, Catherine. He is also survived by 38 Grandchildren and 10 Great Grandchildren. His funeral took place on Nov. 28 from the home of his daughter to St. Joseph's church, Kelly's Cross, where requiem high mass was celebrated by his Parish Priest, Fr. Smith.

His remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery beside his wife to await the glorious resurrection. Fr. Smith also conducted the services at the grave. Seated in the sanctuary was Rev. Charles McCarthy. The funeral was under the direction of the Charlottetown Funeral Home and was largely attended.

His pallbearers were his 5 sons and a son-in-law namely, Joseph, Leo, St. Clair, Linus, Francis and Louis Doiron.
R. I. P.

CARD OF THANKS

The Family of the late Jerome Smith wish to thank Fr. Smith, Rev. Sisters, Dr. Ellis, The Charlottetown Funeral Home, their many kind friends and neighbors, all those who sent Mass Cards, Letters of Sympathy and flowers and all those who in anyway helped during their sad bereavement.
