THEOPH. DESBRISAY,
Hon. Secretary.

Charlottetown, August 24, 1863.

WE learn from the Islander, of Friday last, that a Joint Stock Company is about being organized in this City, to build an Hotel upon a large scale, and that it will be ready for the accommodation of the public in the course of next Summer. We shall be glad to see an enterprise of this kind set on foot. We have some very respectable small establishments, in the Hotel line, but a spacious Hotel, somewhat on a par with those of Cities of our own size, in the neighbouring Provinces and States, is very much wanted here, and we think it will be found to pay well.

☞ OUR thanks are due and respectfully tendered to the proprietors of McLellan's express, St. John, N. B., for fyles of late Boston and Colonial papers.

☞ THE Hon. J. W. Johnston, Leader of the Government of Nova Scotia, was on a visit to this Island during the past week.

ISLAND TRAVELLING.

Although it is not very long since all the world travelled by stage, yet, to-day, we believe the great highways of our illustrious Island are the only ones that have not been entirely denuded of the friendly old mail coach with its polly whips and cheerful trumpet horn, and boisterous freight of human beings. But here at least, let us hope, that whilst William & Samuel Hooper can crack a whip, and Mrs. H. can give the hungry tourist so agreeable a surprise in the hostess line up here at lonely Morelle, we may be spared the sight of an angry rail car, between Eastpoint and the capital!

DENS' THEOLOGY.

Having promised to a Protestant friend the explanation of a Catholic layman on the above work, we shall now give it as briefly and as simply as possible.

This work has been unwisely taken out of the library of the Church to be used as a political weapon against the clergy and laity of the Catholic communion; but it has only damaged the delicate digits of those children who played with it.

All men know that in the entire range of science, there is nothing so difficult, so delicate, and so far from the knowledge of the senses of the chaste student bound to study it, as the science of the conscience. "'Tis conscience that makes cowards of us all;" and "the just man suffers seven times a day" from its abnormal tendencies.

How, then, are men to study this science with a view to cure? The medical man has other certain evidences than those afforded by the confession of his patient as indications by which to be guided; but the "Confessor" has none. This latter needs, therefore, a more minute insight into the mysteries of cause and effect, as well on this account as because of the far more difficult nature of the case and his own essential unacquaintance with the evil.

This science, therefore, has been presented to him in the familiar shape of dialogue between two hypothetical characters, not for his imitation in the Confessional, but to supply him with a clear view of every difficulty arising there and the index to spiritual guidance—where questions cannot be asked or answered.

Now these hypothetical questions, wrested from their sense and meaning, have been published by our press as if actually asked and answered in the Catholic Confessionals, and Catholic ladies have been shocked at this, as well they ought.

The Sons of Temperance Demonstration and Soiree came off yesterday, (Wednesday) as previously announced. The procession left Temperance Hall at 2 p. m., headed by the Volunteer band. The members of the National, Grand, and Subordinate Divisions followed according to seniority. After marching through several of our principal streets, they proceeded to Spruce Avenue, where they and their guests partook of refreshments, with which the tables were liberally supplied. About half-past five (after a short address from the Rev. D. Fitzgerald) the Brethren were again mustered, and returned to Temperance Hall in regular marching order.

At about 8 o'clock, the proceedings in the Hall (which was densely crowded) commenced. The chairman (P. G. W. P. Cooper) opened the meeting with a short address, after which Mr. D. Laird, Mr. McAusland, Rev. Mr. Crawford, Mr. G. Milner, and Mr. J. P. Tanton severally addressed the audience. The speakers appeared to be more than usually animated,—the addresses on the whole, equal to any we have listened to for a long time, and the interest continued unabated until about 10 o'clock, when the meeting closed. The Volunteer Band (many of the members of which have lately joined the Order) occupied the orchestra, and largely contributed to the enjoyment of the evening by their excellent performances. The doxology, benediction, and the National Anthem formed an appropriate finale to the day's proceedings.—Mon.

THE CROPS IN ENGLAND AND IRELAND.—The hopes that were formed some time back of the abundance of the harvest have not proved delusive. From all parts of the United Kingdom—east, west, north and south—the accounts are most encouraging; and in the south of England the harvest has been unusually early as well as productive. In some parts of Kent the cutting of wheat, oats and barley commenced soon after the middle of July: and the introduction of machinery into the fields and into the farmyards in that opulent part of the island has largely contributed to shorten the old and more tedious process of gathering the fruits of the earth. The accounts are almost unvarying in their sameness. Everywhere the cereal crops are declared to be excellent, and the same remark is held to apply with equal truth to the potato crop, which is almost everywhere pronounced free from disease—an announcement which has been a novelty during the last fifteen years. Ireland, whose wretched harvests during the last three or four years have beggared the country, and driven thousands and tens of thousands of the population across the Atlantic, seems likely to be largely compensated in 1863 for her past sufferings. From all parts of the sister island the most cheerful statements are made of the coming prospects.

HORRIBLE MURDERS.—A St. Louis paper says that on Tuesday morning, 4th inst., at Compromise, in Tennessee, eighteen negro soldiers, fully armed, came from the camp on Island No. 10, went to the house of Mr. Frank Beckham, on the river, and murdered him, his old father, (Maj. Benj. Beckham, aged eighty,) and four children of Mr. F. Beckham, Laura aged fourteen, Kate aged ten, Carolina seven, and Richard two years. They first caught Mr. F. Beckham and his aged father, tied them, marched them to the edge of the bank of the river, shot and stabbed them, and threw their bodies into the water. They then threw little Dick into the River, tied the two youngest girls together and threw them in, then forced the oldest girl, and beat her over the head with their muskets until she sank down. The bodies of old Maj. Beckham and the youngest child have been recovered. Many of our passengers and myself went to the house and saw them. Fortunately two of the family of children were off at school, and the mother and one child, four years old, went up to Owensboro', Kentucky. All the rest were murdered. Twelve of the negroes were caught by our cavalry and are now confined at Island No. 10. Six are yet at large. The immediate motive for the deed was thought to be the fact that Mrs. Beckham took up the river with her a negro girl as nurse whose mother had run off, and was at Island No. 10.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN CALIFORNIA.—San Francisco, Aug. 11.—The State is full of rumors of the contemplated rising of the secessionists, consequently there is an uneasy feeling in the public mind. On the 6th an affray occurred at Visalia between the secessionists and the soldiers stationed there. One of the latter was killed and several were wounded. Thirty-six shots were exchanged. Tilian and the adjoining counties in the southern part of the State contain numerous secessionists.

SALE OF GOODS IN THE SOUTHERN STATES.—Messrs. John G. Milner and Co. disposed of, yesterday, a valuable collection of goods, most of which has lately arrived through the blockade. The following prices were obtained:

Bi carb soda, $1.95 a 2.25 per lb; castor oil, $16 per gal; kerosene oil, $27.50 a 32 per gal; lard oil, $15.50 per gal; tanners' oil. $1.15 a 1.20 per gal; axle grease, 35c per lb; claret, $45 a 53 per dozen; Martel brandy, $175 per dozen; cognac brandy, $94 a 114 per dozen; brandy in casks, $30. a 55 per gallon; rum, $17 a 50 per gallon; Bourbon whiskey, $22 a 24 per gallon; alcohol, $21 a 22 per gallon; Holland gin, $67 50 a 68 per case; Geneva gin, $61 per case; cordials, $38 a 39 per case; champagne, in small bottles, 4 dozen in a case, $105 a 107.50 per case; Newton & Co's Madeira, 1840 and '42 $8 per bottle; gin, $16.50 a 17 per gal; window glass in bad order, $31 per box; black pepper, $2.80 per lb; coffee, $2.90 per lb; crushed sugar, $2.80 a 2.92½ per lb; brown sugar, $1.15 a 1.60 per lb; green tea, $4.90 a 5.25 per lb; black tea, $5 per lb; mackerel, $205 a 212.50 per bbl; mackerel, in kits, $39.50 a 51 per kit; London starch, $1.90 per lb; women's gaiters, $13.50 a 22.50 per pair; Mason's blacking, $10.25 per dozen; calf skins, $470 a 475 per dozen; letter paper, $47.50 a 50 per ream.

SOLDIER FLOGGED.—Yesterday morning at ten o'clock in the Jesuit barrack parade ground, one of those disgusting scenes which, fortunately for the reputation of the British army, are of rare occurrence, took place, namely, the administrating of fifty lashes to a poor unfortunate soldier who had been found guilty by court martial. The punishment was inflicted in presence of the whole regiment, and of hundreds of spectators who lined the wall along Anne street. The soldier was tied by the wrists to a triangle in the centre of the square, and while the whip was being applied to him by a drummer of the regiment, he writhed in agony, but did not scream or make any outward demonstration, he wasthen taken down and sent to hospital, after which he will be sent to the military prison for two years to complete his sentence.

The crime for which this severe punishment was inflicted was for a supposed attempt to shoot the sergeant-major of the 17th Regt., to which the prisoner, named Ryan, belonged. The evidence of his intention to commit the deed was his having his piece loaded, and his own admission. We also learn that he had borne a good character in the regiment, and that the sergeant-major had done nothing to excite his anger.

The only complaint lodged against him by the sergeant-major was some ten years since for drunkenness. Ryan had only two months more to complete his term of service of ten years, after which he would have been entitled to his discharge.—Quebec Daily News, Aug. 13.

THE CROPS IN NOVA SCOTIA.—The Halifax 'Colonist' says:—"We learn that the crops throughout the country are very promising. Hay will prove considerably above an average yield; and, notwithstanding the unsettled state of the weather at the commencement of the haying season, will be pretty generally secured in excellent order. Wheat, barley and oats look very healthy—although in some localities the grain is suffering from drought, in others the wheat is nearly ready for the sickle. The potatoe plant has a remarkably vigorous appearance, and promises an abundant yield, notwithstanding the injury which the early plants received from frost in the beginning of June. Verily there seems to be a prospect that the labors of the husbandman will be crowned by an abundant harvest.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Outward infirmities.—Before the discovery of these remedies, many cases of sores, ulcers, &c., were pronounced to be hopelessly incurable, because the treatment pursued tended to destroy the strength it was incompetent to preserve, and to exasperate the symptoms it was inadequate to remove. Holloway's Pills exert the most wholesome powers over unhealthy flesh or skin, without debarring the patient from fresh air and exercise, and thus the constitutional vigour is husbanded; while the most malignant ulcers, abscesses, and skin diseases are in process of cure. Both Ointment and Pills make the blood richer and purer, instead of permitting it to fall into that poor and watery state so fatal to many labouring under chronic ulcerations.
