IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOSEPH CAMPBELL
On Sunday the 5th day of August Mr. Joseph Campbell, a dearly loved and highly respected resident of Little Pond passed to his Eternal reward in the 76th year of age.

Mr. Campbell had been in failing health for the last couple of years. Since June his suffering became more intense as the weeks passed, until his soul was called to receive its reward for long and arduous labour.

The late Mr. Campbell carried on farming at Goose River, but owing to the death of his brother John D. and wife, who both passed away at an early age, leaving a young family, he was obliged to return to the old home to support his aged mother and his brother's orphaned family.

He married Penelope Wilson and by hard work and constant perseverance they succeeded in building up a prosperous home. During his years in Little Pond the charm of his sincere upright personality won the esteem and affection of neighbors and friends.

A quiet dignity of manner coupled with the firmness of duty won for him respect, regardless of class or creed.

His strong spirit of faith outshone his other qualities and this was testified in his daily acceptance of the suffering which he bore with Christian fortitude. The frequent visits of his Parish Priest, Rev. Charles Gallant brought to the departing Christian soul all the blessings of Holy Mother Church and his peaceful death was a fitting close to the noble life he lived in striving to serve God faithfully in the days when health and strength permitted.

His remains were conveyed under the direction of the Dingwell Funeral Service to St. Francis de Sales Church. The long procession of loving friends paid its own silent tribute of remembrance to the dear departed.

A High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Charles Gallant who also performed the obsequies at the grave.

There are left to mourn their loss his wife and one son Wilson at home, one brother Ignatius in California, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Alex McFarlane, Lester Blackett, J. W. MacDonald, Charles J. MacDonald, Vincent MacDonald, Allan McKenzie. May he rest in peace.
