

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ROBERT H. ROBERTS

The residents of Winsloe and surrounding communities were shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden passing on January 20th, of Mrs. Robert H. Roberts at the comparatively early age of 62 years.

The late Mrs. Roberts was born in Wheatley River in 1869, the daughter of the late Richard Stead and Emma Jane Coles.

The late Mrs. Roberts was possessed of a ready sense of humor, and had the gift of being a good conversationalist.

She leaves to mourn, besides her sorrowing husband, two children, Walter H. of North Winsloe, and Marjorie, Mrs. Arthur Bishop of Charlottetown; also two grandchildren, Gail Bishop and George Roberts, and the following sisters and brothers.

The late Mrs. Roberts was a member of Winsloe North United Church, and was visited by her pastor, Rev. J. R. Skinner, also by Rev. H. Barbour of Fairview Baptist Church.

The funeral service, which was held from her late home on January 20th, was very largely attended, people coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a good friend and neighbour.

The following is the list of Floral Tributes, Letters and Cards of Sympathy.

York Highlights

The many friends of Mrs. Lloyd Bell, Mr. Orrin McCann and Mrs. Reid of West Covehead, were sorry to hear of their recent illnesses.

Mr. Earl Ling's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent attack of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Jewell, York, had as their welcome guests Mr. Jewell's mother and sister, Mrs. Jewell and Miss Jewell of Cornwall, for the past several days.

The weekly shoot took place in the club room on the evening of Feb. 22nd of the Indoor Rifle Club of York.

Miss Gladys McMillan, Covehead Road, who has recently been a patient in Prince Edward Island Hospital, has been convalescing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vessey, York, for the past few days.

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of York United Church was entertained by the committee in charge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewar Swan on Tuesday evening, February 13th. A large attendance was present.

Mrs. Lloyd Vessey, York, had as her guests on the evening of Feb. 15th the York Division of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The results of their efforts on behalf of the young people in guiding them to study and write the exams of the Temperance Course have been very gratifying as several youthful writers have obtained honorary standing provincially. Many contestants have written these exams for four and five years now.

Mr. R. H. Roberts and Family wish to express to their friends and neighbours their appreciation of all the acts of kindness during their recent sad bereavement; also to those who sent Floral Tributes, Letters and Cards of Sympathy. They also wish to thank the crew of the Snow Plow for their assistance.

SAND BAY, England — (CP)—Visitors to this Somersetshire seaside resort are making enough to pay expenses, and more, by collecting target practice. Thousands of the shells were swept up on the beach, and scrap merchants pay £187 a ton for brass.

Bloomfield and Vicinity

Our efficient mail-driver, Mr. Philip Gallant was not on his route for four days due to the storm and impassable roads.

Friends regret to know that Mrs. Edward Sharbell continues to be in ill health. Mrs. Gilbert Gaudet of Woodstock is at present attending her.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pineau, Jr., spent a recent evening visiting at the home of Mrs. Pineau's mother, Mrs. Leon Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horne and family spent a recent afternoon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland Bell at Mill River.

Pte. Ernest Pineau, paratrooper in the Canadian Army, is at present spending his embarkation leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Octave Pineau, of Duvar.

The Duvar Dramatic Folks held a concert in St. Anthony's Hall, on February 25, which, as usual, was a decided success.

Her many friends are very glad to know Mrs. Sutherland Bell was able to return to her home on Saturday, February 18. All hope she will not have to be hospitalized for further treatment.

—Due to the storm, Mrs. Chester Johnson of Truro was unable to return to her home Monday, February 18. She spent some time with her brother, Mr. Dan Saunders, in O'Leary.
