

Soviet Press Sees Rosy Picture At Geneva Meet

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet press exuded a rosy glow about the Geneva conference Tuesday only slightly dimmed by not-so-rosy remarks on inside pages.

Pravda and Izvestia, the Communist party and Soviet government organs respectively, each added two pages to their usual daily four so they could publish with equal space, the speeches of the Big Four leaders opening the "summit" conference.

These two papers, along with the trade union organ Trud and the young Communists' mouthpiece, Komsomolskaya Pravda, all published two-column front-page editorials calling for peace as a result of the Geneva meeting.

The Pravda and Izvestia correspondents waxed chatty, passing on such anecdotes as this:

"The story made the rounds of news correspondents here Monday about how two old fighting comrades-in-arms, President Eisenhower and Marshal Zhukov (Soviet defence minister and hero of Berlin in the Second World War) during their friendly chat mentioned with no little pride that each of them already has several grandchildren."

JARRING NOTE

The jarring note turned up on page 2, where correspondents could read into a joint statement of A.I. Mikoyan, a first deputy premier, and President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam some remarks that looked anti-Western. The statement was signed at a meeting Monday night.

The joint Mikoyan-Ho statement said the two countries "resolutely denounce attempts at including South Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia (the associated states of Indochina) in the zone of action of

Legion Down Kinsmen 16-7

The Legion defeated the Kinsmen at the Little League diamond at Queen Elizabeth Park in Summerside last night by the score of 16-7.

The Kinsmen were down 13-1 at the end of the first inning, and put up a game uphill fight but could not catch the Legion boys. Jimmie Hogan was on the mound for the winners. He gave up seven hits and struck out seven.

Bobby Cook started for Kinsmen but was relieved in the first by Dick MacLean. MacLean struck out two and gave up three hits. The Legion got six hits off Cook.

Young Hudson, coming into the game in the fifth inning, belted two doubles for a perfect evening.

Micmacs Tie Grand River

On Sunday afternoon the Lennox Island Micmacs scored eight runs in the last inning to tie the Grand River Cardinals, 10-10. L. Mitchell was on the mound for the home team while R. McDougall did the throwing for Grand River.

CAMRADIO OF AIR FORCE

Two of the many personnel of the RCAF (auxiliary) looking forward to their stay on Prince Edward Island for the two week summer exercise with a great deal of anticipation are Wing Commander John G. Portlock, M.B.E., Chief Technical Officer with 18 Wing Headquarters and Sqn. Leader Sam Lieberman, Sr., Administrative Officer. For them it is an opportunity to renew old acquaintances made during their wartime stay in this part of the country, when they were stationed at No. 31 GRU, Charlotte town.

Air Comrades Meet At Summerside Air Station

Wing Commander Portlock is in his 29th year of service with the Air Force, having joined the RAF as a boy apprentice in 1926. His service has taken him to the far reaches of the British Empire but it was to Canada that he decided to go upon his discharge from the RAF in 1946.

Taking up residence in Edmonton, Alberta, upon his arrival in Canada Mr. Portlock became one of the original members of the firm of Northwest Industries Limited employed in the overhaul and repair of aircraft. He is now superintendent of the Instrument Overhaul Laboratory of that firm.

The camarade of the air force, however, was in his blood, and on his arrival in Edmonton he re-enlisted, this time with the R.C.A.F. (Auxiliary) and recommenced his career as a Pilot Officer. In September of 1946 he was promoted to the rank of Pilot Officer in the RCAF (Auxiliary), a unit formed that year to ensure a continuous flow of technically trained personnel to the regular and auxiliary air force. In June of this year he was promoted to the rank of Wing Commander and took over the position of Chief Technical Officer for all units under the command of 18 Wing RCAF (Auxiliary), thus re-attaining the rank with which he retired from the RAF.

Squadron Leader Samuel Lieberman enlisted straight out of High School into the RCAF in November of 1940. He was a Pilot Officer in 1941 while resident in Charlottetown after his graduation as a pilot at Carberry, Manitoba. During the war period he flew on operations out of the United Kingdom, Gibraltar and Aden. During the latter posting he was on anti-submarine patrol. An interesting sideline during his spell of duty in the of C. & B. in bottom half of seventh. For example, if rain had stopped game just as Ballem replaced Stull, Crystal Dairy would not have won. Score would have reverted to even innings. (Of course, pitchers have to go five innings to get credit for win anyway, but all-star games like one in which Dee pitched are patterned off the big league classic, where if beginning pitchers go only three innings, and there may be a special rule to cover this). We'd be glad to get opinions.

Provincial tennis tournament starts this coming Saturday, July 23, at Charlottetown, those in Summerside or at the airport who wish to enter should contact Earl Smith in Summerside, or mail entries to Charlottetown Tennis Club. Entries from airport are especially desired.

Miss MacCormack who was the senior student nurse on duty duty corroborated the evidence given by Mrs. MacDonald and at the same time explained what her duties were in relation to the patient.

Miss Elizabeth Underhay, a student nurse on night duty said that Mrs. Yeo was one of the patients assigned to her care. She visited her several times during the night and early morning, the last of which was at 5 a.m. At that time the patient had her back turned toward the bedroom door and appeared to be sleeping.

Miss Underhay said that Mrs. Yeo had rang her bell on two occasions during the night asking for something to put her to sleep. On the permission of the night supervisor additional sedatives were given on two occasions. The nurse said that the deceased had complained of "feeling awful."

When asked what she thought of the patient's condition, Miss Underhay said that her condition had not taken any change for the worse. She entered the report that the patient had had a poor night, meaning that she did not sleep well.

Coroner Prowse who was the first staff doctor at the hospital her bed and presuming that she had gone to the bathroom, proceeded to the next room to continue with her temperature taking. A short time later when she returned to Mrs. Yeo's room she saw that the patient was still out of bed so she called to her from outside the bathroom door.

Miss Shepherd said that Mrs. Yeo had fainted in the bathroom on the previous day and assuming that this had happened again she tried the door only to find that the patient's weight was against the inside. Sensing something very wrong, Miss Shepherd ran to the corridor where she fetched Miss Margaret Williams, another nurse in training.

The two nurses then opened the door enough to discover the body of the deceased hanging from the door hook on the inside of the door.

DESCRIBES ROUTINE

She told of being in the act of proceeding for breakfast when she was approached by nurses Williams and Shepherd who informed her of what had happened to Mrs. Yeo. With another nurse, Shirley MacCormack, the superintendent went to the bathroom of the patient. With Miss MacCormack's help she removed the patient to her bed, first sending for the intern. Resuscitation efforts were made on the patient but there was every indication that she was already dead.

West Prince Liberals In Annual Meeting Yesterday

Mr. Lester Wallace, Cascumpeque, was elected president of the West Prince Liberal Association at the annual meeting in O'Leary yesterday afternoon. Retiring president, Mr. Percy Adams, presented and welcomed the delegates. The O'Leary public hall was filled to capacity. A resolution was brought forward regarding the present unsatisfactory mail and train service in the western part of P.E. Island. Speaking on this resolution, Mr. Peter Pate, O'Leary, stated that the Board of Transport Commissioners have already prepared their decision at Ottawa, which will be announced today, and he suggested that this resolution be held until their decision on the application for the discontinuance of passenger trains is made known.

A further resolution urged that the Government take action to stop the very serious damage being caused by the spruce bud worm to stands of spruce trees in the western section of the Island.

A third resolution protesting the tariff on potatoes being exported to the United States while American potatoes are brought into Canada duty free, was approved.

Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, member of Parliament for Prince County and parliamentary assistant to the Minister of Fisheries, also spoke on the resolutions and stated that the potato tariff question was not going to be an easy one to settle as tariffs are no longer a matter of government policy but are controlled by a world organization, the General Association of Tariffs, but he felt sure that the board could do something to improve the potato situation in N.B., N.S. and P.E.I. He noted that the State of Maine grows as many potatoes as all of Canada, sixty millions

Sport Echoes From Prince County

Because the RCAF softball teams were out of competition for a couple of weeks, the Prince County Men's Softball Association schedule seems to have got badly out of whack. The Crystal Dairy team have played seven games, for example, and the Flyers only two. Of course, if C & B games are thrown out, this will reduce the Crystal Dairy games to five.

At that they will have to take a vacation if the Flyers are to catch up. Then, the Lanes have played two games at the Crystal Dairy home diamond and the milkmen haven't played at the airport diamond at all. If this series is to be evened up, that will mean two more games between these two teams, and it is doubtful if all teams can play four games with all other teams before the playoffs start.

Donnie Schurman, Little League pitcher for Legion, is the first no-hit game for some years. Of course, the kids go only six innings, but by Little League standards this is a regulation game, and no doubt as difficult for the small fry as a nine-inning contest in older-age brackets. Donnie turned the trick against the RCAF little leaguers, who seem to be young Schurman's yes-men this season. On his last appearance against them he gave up only one hit. The airforce boys seem to do their share of ball-clobbering in other games, and Schurman was shelled from the mound on one occasion by Rotary.

Dee Lefurage clouted a 350-foot homer in an all-star game in the Char-Maine league recently. Dee pitched the first three innings and allowed only one run. Black's Harbour, the team for which Dee, Coke Grady and Maurice Cannon play, is leading the league.

In connection with the game in which Dee pitched, something came up which we'd like to explain to Island baseball fans, and get some opinions. At the end of three innings the score was knotted 1-1, but Dee's team scored ten runs in the top half of the fourth. Dee was credited with the victory. The same situation came up in one of our softball games. Ray Stull was pitching for Crystal Dairy and at end of six innings, score was tied, Crystal Dairy forged ahead in top of seventh, and Chas Ballem relieved Stull in bottom of seventh. Contrary to the Char-Maine decision we called Ballem the winner. Were we right or wrong?

We have a book on scoring rules (not quite up-to-date) which does not refer at all to this situation. We reasoned, however, that when Stull finished pitching, score was tied in even innings. Although Stull was technically still in the game when the milkmen went ahead, it was not "even innings" against until Ballem had disposed

Wife Forced Him Into Woman's Room, Shot Her

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 32-year-old vacuum cleaner salesman told police Tuesday his wife forced him at gunpoint into an apartment of another woman and then killed her with a single pistol shot.

The wife, Mrs. Katherine Ann Haynes, 28, told police the shooting was accidental. Mother of four children, ranging in age from 5 to 9, she said she is suffering from incurable cancer and that doctors have given her only a year to live.

The dead girl was identified as Nancy Penton, 19, a clerk in a shoe repair shop.

Detectives said the salesman, Willis M. Haynes, gave this account of the shooting: WIFE WAITING

He left Miss Penton's apartment shortly after one o'clock Tuesday morning only to find his wife waiting for him in a car outside.

She took a pistol from a paper bag and told him: "I want to see Nancy."

Then, training the gun on him, she forced him to march up two flights of stairs to the apartment which had been rented in the name of "Mr. and Mrs. Haynes."

When they entered the room, Miss Penton was in bed, clad only in her pajama tops.

Mrs. Haynes ordered her husband to sit on a couch and then shot Nancy with a .22-calibre pistol. The girl was pronounced dead an hour later at Casualty Hospital.

A different version of the shooting was given by Mrs. Haynes said Detective Sgt. Emmett Waters.

The detective said she acknowledged forcing her husband into the apartment but said that after she entered the room, she instructed both her husband and the girl to sit on the couch.

Miss Penton lunged at her, Mrs. Haynes related, her hand striking the pistol and discharging it accidentally.
