Dear Editor,

I am quite shocked at Student Union's attitude. In the recent Council meeting (open to the public), Joanna Murphy, Student Union President - elected by us - early passed motion on the issue of what to do with our money ($10,000 per year) by saying "build a student centre". She did not ask students what their money should be spent on. As a student, I resent her attitude.

First of all, as a student, I should be kept informed of what my money is being spent on. I was at the student council meeting, and I was not asked. Remember Joanna Murphy, you are elected by us to do a proper job, and you are supposed to act upon students requests.

Secondly, the rest of the executive seems to think that they are on a "power-ride". Mr. Fitzpatrick, for example, wrote a letter last week, condemning Kirby Ferguson's work on CIMN's Alter Ego. We are university students, and we are of age to read the censored chart. After all, the songs are real and therefore not tasteless. If Student Union did not become full of itself, Mr. Ferguson would not have to waste his time and black out certain words.

I suppose that Student Union's executive starts to behave like adults, and stop going on Power-Trips. We do not need you if you have an attitude problem.

Sincerely, Students who are annoyed by your actions.
