COLONIAL PARLIAMENT.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Debate on the Draft Address in answer to His Excellency's Speech (continued.)

Mr. BRECKEN.—I believe he did not deceive as many as did the hon. member himself on one occasion; and as to being deceived, I call for proof of the insinuation. Nor was the Hon. Mr. Howe the only friend the people had at the Commissioners' Court. Did not the Government of the day obtain the services of Mr. Thompson, of New Brunswick, as counsel for the tenantry,—a young gentleman of education and ability, whom I recommended to their notice? Yes, Mr. Chairman; and this gentleman appeared before that court, and boldly and ably advocated the rights of the people. And more than that, parties of all shades of politics and opinions were allowed to come before the Commissioners' Court and make their statements, without giving them on oath. Every species of representation respecting the grievances and hardships of the tenantry was made there; and I believe the hon. member himself also delivered a speech in presence of the Court. At the time of the French revolution, it used to be said: "O, Liberty! what crimes are practised in thy name?" and were it not making a too free comparison, I might say, how much buncombe is practised under the name of P. E. Island Liberalism! The Conservatives, we have been told, are everything that is bad and deceptive. Even when the people endeavoured to get the arbitration clause of the Award carried into effect, and did not succeed, the cry was raised that the proprietors and the Tories had thrown obstacles in the way. The proprietors, it is true, raised an objection to the arbitration clause, on the ground that the Commissioners had no authority to delegate their powers to others; and I believe the objection had some force, for it is based on a principle recognized in all arbitrations; but the Conservative party of this Island were innocent of throwing any obstacle in the way of the confirmation of that clause. So much for the Land commission; now for the Tenant League. I understood the hon. member to say that this association started on a right principle; but afterwards it departed from the paths of rectitude. But, Sir, I believe that the contrary is the fact,—that the Tenant Union was at first based upon the principle of resistance to the payment of rents, and that afterwards it renounced it and modified its constitution. Perhaps this hon. gentleman, who is sworn to support the laws, will inform this hon. committee whether the Union was working on an illegal principle or not, when he subscribed to its funds. It is easy to draw nice distinctions about moral and physical resistance; but when an association of that kind, with a large proportion of not very scrupulous members, gets under way, where is it to stop? Notwithstanding that he has told us that he warned the Leaguers they were going too far, and cautioned them to be aware of violating the laws, I believe he sympathized with their association when it was illegal, and sympathized with it to the end; in, short, that he owes his seat in this House to the use he made of that political horse. Sir. I believe, as I remarked last night, that he rode the Tenant Union horse to the very door of this Legislative hall, and then turned him adrift. The hon. member has endeavoured to make it appear that, after all, there was scarcely such a thing as resistance to the officers of Her Majesty's Supreme Court. I can tell that hon. gentleman that I have had writs in my own hands, which had nothing to do with rent, that I could not get the Sheriff to execute. That officer informed me that he could not undertake the duty unless a body of some twenty or thirty men were placed at his disposal. I have, Sir, often gone home from my professional duties, humiliated with the thought that in this, my native Colony, society was in such a state that Her Majesty's laws could not be carried out without the intervention of a stronger power than the ordinary officers of justice. We have been told that the late Government should have called into requisition the civil force of the Colony,—should have armed man against man, and brother against brother, before they sent for the troops. Supposing they had done so, what would have been the consequence? The men sworn in to do duty for their Queen would have been marched forth with the Sheriff, armed to execute the writs of the Court; the tin trumpets—those trumpets which have no doubt been music to the hon. member's ears, and should be taken now and hung around his neck—(applause)—would have been sounded, and neighbor have rushed to spill neighbor's blood. But British troops are cautious, and being under strict discipline, would commit no act of violence unless it was unavoidable. Neither would they be deterred from doing their duty by any fear of offending or injuring a neighbor. Under all the circumstances, then, I hold that the late Government pursued a wise course in calling in the aid of the military, for after they came there was an end to the League. True, we had to build the barracks; but would the hon. member deny shelter to Her Majesty's Troops? Had they not been brought here, I believe blood would have been shed before the Leaguers would have desisted in their mad resistence; and once stationed in the Colony, the troops must be provided with comfortable accomodation. But the outlay for the barracks will not prove a loss, for do not the troops spend amongst us annually some £6000 of that money which we so much require? At a particular time, about a year ago, when a subject was agitating the public mind, of more concern to us than even the land question—one, Sir, that came home to our hearths and our homes, namely, the Fenian raids—this hon. member, who now complains so loudly of the action of the late Administration in seeking the intervention of the military, to quell the Tenant Union disturbances, said to me in the course of a conversation that I had with him, that he was grateful to the Government for bringing the troops here.

Hon. Mr. DAVIES—I am that glad the troops are here.

Mr. BRECKEN.—Very good. Mr Chairman, and I hope he will use his influence as a member of the Government to retain them here. But there is another interesting point in his history which the hon. member did not give. He has vindicated the tenantry, and denounced the late Government, the Supreme Court, and all concerned, for being so harsh with the Tenant League prisoners; and, Sir, this same hon. gentleman who speaks in this strain was foreman of the Grand Jury which presented to the Court a true bill against those men—a bill which declared that with evil intent, malice aforethought, and dear knows what all, they had broken the law.

Hon. Mr. DAVIES.—What was the nature of the Judge's charge?

Mr. BRECKEN.—I am not prepared to enter into the merits of the case; but, Sir, I consider it very unfair for an hon. gentleman, one of His Excellency's responsible advisers, to rise up in this House and insinuate that the fountains of justice are impure,—that the men who occupy the Bench of this Colony, and who are sworn to administer justice, have failed to discharge their duty. He would not venture to state that the Court said so and so; but simply that he had heard that such and such was the nature of the statements. If he believed what he heard, he ought to have instituted a charge against the Judges. It would be easy for him to have gained access to the records of the Court and satisfied himself whether the sentences were as reported to him. This was the course for the hon. member to pursue, instead of bringing up the matter here; and, Sir, as he is now a member of Her Majesty's Executive Council, I trust he will not allow the case to rest with his remarks before this hon. Committee, but that he will have it investigated to the very bottom. As regards the financial question, and the censure he passed upon the late Government for purchasing the Cunard estates, I may say that that purchase involved a loss to myself personally of perhaps nearly £100 a year in a business way—more, probably, than the hon. member ever realized from his advocacy of the cause of the tenantry—and also that in that purchase the interests of my constituents were not regarded. But, Sir, it is not right to be too selfish in considering the expediency of a public question—it is the duty of an enlightened legislator to look to the general good. The price paid for the Cunard estate may have been higher than the people could have wished; but notwithstanding the censure that has been cast upon the late Government for this purchase, it is a satisfaction for me to know that the average price paid by them for lands is 1s. 2d. less than that paid by the Liberal Government for the Worrell estate. The Conservatives bought the Cunard estate on the best terms they could obtain; and I believe the people on that estate are satisfied with the purchase. But we heard nothing from the last speaker as to what his party is prepared to do in the future. The Sullivan estate, I understand, is in the market; is it to be purchased or is it to be escheated? Let us have something tangible before this Committee, and not the nonsense to which we have listened from the hon. member for Belfast (Mr. Davies)

MANNY'S
Reaping and Mowing MACHINES.

THE Subscriber would inform the Farmers of P. E. Island that he has now on the way to the Island a goodly number of those CELEBRATED MACHINES. Also, a number of the far-famed UNION MOWERS, together with quite a number of WHITCOMB'S PATENT HORSE RAKES—the same he sold here the last season, and that has given so much satisfaction to those that used them, which they will fully confirm and agree to when asked by any of you—and would also state that he has ordered a number of the BUCK-EYE REAPING and MOWING MACHINES, which will soon be here.

As money seems to be quite an article here at this time, and very difficult to get hold of, the Subscriber would beg leave to say, that those parties who may wish to pay money for any of those Machines he will make a liberal deduction from last year's prices, while to those who may wish a long credit on the Machines may be assured of the same liberal terms as usual, say from one to three seasons, divided into equal payments, as the parties may agree upon at the time of purchase.

H. C. GREEN, of Summerside, and
R. J. CLARKE, of Orwell, will act as my Agents in selling the above Machines in this Province; and the Subscriber will be found at his Old Stand, the City Grocery Store, North side of Queen's Square, near the Post Office, where he will be very happy not only to SHOW the above Machines but to SELL them to the Farmers. Please call and examine the Machines for yourselves before purchasing elsewhere. I have now on hand a full assortment of Extras for the Manny Machines.

NEW TRIUMPHS OF
ROGERS' MEDICINES.

Run your eye over them and tell your affected neighbour about it.

PUGWASH, June 8, 1863.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.:

Dear Sirs—I beg to inform you that your medicine has effected a complete cure of the Tumour or Cancer on my lip. It had existed about one year, and continued to grow worse continually, until I got your salve; which cured it in about six weeks.

I also was troubled with an ulcer on my ear, which was occasioned by having my ear frozen about twenty years ago, and never could get any medicine to heal it. The doctors told me it never could be healed; but your medicine cured the cancer so effectually, that I was induced to try it on my ear, and it cured it in a very short time, and has since continued well.

WILLIAM FRASER.

PUGWASH, May 29, 1863.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.:

Gentlemen—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public, to state the following facts, as well for the benefit of humanity as in justice to yourself—although it should have been done long before this; but better late than never.

About four or five years ago I had a cancer in my breast, which had been coming on for a long time before; but at last it became very painful, with sharp and severe pains darting through it at certain times. I being afraid to submit to the operation, and hearing that you had cured many cancers, I, as you know, applied to you, and submitted to your treatment, and used your medicine, and in a few months was thoroughly cured, and have been in perfect health ever since. I would wish this to be made public, for the benefit of others

Yours with much gratitude, ELIZABETH RYAN.

We know of no worse case—judging from the description given by letter—than that of a son of W. B. Weldon, Esq., of Kouchibouguac, N. B. He was reduced to a mere skeleton. He suffered most intense pain for many months. His leg was ulcerated, and the bone diseased, a large ulcer on his chin and face. Medicine and skill utterly failed, until all hope of saving his life was gone. Mr Weldon's was a sorrowful house, no doubt, until our wonderful medicine dispelled the gloom. The lad is now nearly well, smart, cheerful, and happy. The parents, too, look more cheerful, and have lighter hearts, we judge, by the cheering tone of their letters. It is refreshing to us to be thus the instruments of good to afflicted humanity. What care we for the slanders of the unprincipled! Our motto is onward. Our business is to save human life, and cause the suffering and sorrowing to to rejoice; and to make money, you will add Yes, certainly, we respond: and do you not think we deserve some of the large sum annually sent to brother Jonathan for useless articles.

Mr. Thomas Faulkner, of East River, Pictou, N. S. is cured of a sore leg of nineteen years standing. The best physicians in the Province, after exhausting their skill, recommended amputation as the only remedy. His health was very much reduced, but is now completely restored.

Mrs. Hannah Balmain, of Wickhan, N. B, after using our medicine for over one year, for an ULCERATED CANCER of the breast, writes us under date of Oct. 15, 1865 as follows:—

"My breast is doing well: there is but one small lump on it now. It only discharges from one ulcer: the rest are all healed up. I have not enjoyed such good health for several years, as I do now. I have only received three bottles of your Syrup since I last wrote. Being a poor woman, it is out of my reach, or I would be entirely well before now."

It would occupy too much space to give a full history of this case. It was a bad one, however. She was preserved, and the result will be a final cure, we judge. Let no man say in future that ulcerated cancer cannot be cured.

THE ROAD TO HEATH
AND LONG LIFE

SECURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Impurities of the Blood.

In selecting the most appropriate medicine for a particular ailment, there may be some difficulty unless one can be found to purify, regulate, and improve the quality of the blood. These Pills possess and exert these three qualifications in an extraordinary degree. They enable the stomach to digest any ordinary food, increase the secretory powers of the liver, cleanse and purify the blood, expel all morbid matter, and throw into the circulation the purest elements for sustaining and repairing the frame.

Weakness and Debility.

How many persons suffer from debility without knowing the causes why they are feeble! In most cases the stomach is the aggressor. Holloway's Pills have long been famed for regulating a disordered stomach, and restoring its healthy digestive tone; they are, therefore, confidently recommended as a never failing remedy in all cases where the constitution, from any cause, has become impaired or weakened.

Disease of the Head and Heart.

These formidable diseases are, unfortunately, of frequent occurrence; for the most part they creep on gradually, but may be prevented by proper precautions. Holloway's Pills are the surest preservatives against all derangements of the brain, and are the speediest correctors of irregular circulation. If they be taken without delay, when tingling in the limbs, drowsiness, or giddiness comes on, the effect will be marvellous.

Females of all Ages & Classes.

The fame of these Pills is partly based upon the beneficial effects they have upon the constitutions of females. From the domestic servant to the peeress, universal favor is accorded to them for their invigorating and purifying properties, which render them so safe and invaluable in all disorders peculiar to the sex Obstructions of every kind, either in young persons entering into womanhood or approaching the turn of life—the most critical period—may be radically removed by a recourse to these Pills.

All Disorders affecting the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

Whenever the stomach, liver, or bowels are disordered by high living, climate, over-indulgence, undue exertion or other causes, these fine regulating Pills will soon rectify the evil, and speedily bring back energy, strength and cheerfulness to the frame where previously all was lassitude, gloom and dejection.

Despondency, Low Spirits.

The misery occasioned by a disordered digestion is, unfortunately, felt by most. These famous Pills should be taken in appropriate doses to adjust the disturbed functions. They dispel headache, biliousness, nausea, lowness of spirits, and all similar ailments. A course of these invaluable purifying Pills never fails in removing the cause of such morbid affections, without subjecting the sufferer to any inconvenience Influenza, Diptheria, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds.

In our changeable climate few persons escape without colds, sore throats, influenza, diptheria, or bronchitis, for all of which these famous corrective Pills may be taken with the certainty of effecting a cure. While the Pills are expelling all impurities from the body generally, Holloway's Ointment should be well rubbed upon the chest and throat; it will penetrate the skin, reduce inflammation, and restore lasting soundness.

Holloway's Pills are the best Remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Ague	Female Irregularities	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Asthma	Fevers of all kinds	Sore Throat
Bilious Complaints	Fits	Stone & Gravel
Blotches on the Skin	Gout	Second'ry Symptoms

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her

Soothing Syrup,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it; on the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skilful nurses in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcomes convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the facsimile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

☞ Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
