Habs Gain Ground

MONTREAL Canadiens served definite notice over the weekend that they still have serious notions about first place in the National Hockey League.

Apparently on their way to defeat Saturday night at the hands of Chicago Black Hawks, Toe Blake's charges stormed back in that second period to almost chase Rudy Pilous and his outfit from the Montreal Fourm. Sunday night they continued their goal scoring in Detroit's Olympia where Red Wings were humbled 6-1.

The double decision on the weekend got the Montrealers back in second place, one point ahead of those hot and cold Toronto Maple Leafs. Chicago now holds a four point margin over Montreal, but the Canadiens are showing signs of being really on the march.

Chance For Leafs

TONIGHT at Maple Leaf Gardens, the Leafs will be gunning once again for second place. They can achieve that goal if they downed these Canadiens.

So far this season, Punch Imlock's boys have held the upper hand on the Blakemen. The Leafs have been playing their best hockey when they find the Habs facing them at the other end of the ice.

If that holds true tonight, Leafs should emerge with the decision. Undoubtedly Imlach has blistered them after that 4-1 loss in New York. If a team is ever going to be 'up' for a game, Leafs should be that kind of a team tonight.

BUT this Montreal club has just tasted two victories and enjoyed things very much. They'll be looking for more of the same tonight. When the Habs get thirsp for victory they are mighty dangerous and that should be their frame of mind tonight.

Right now, Montreal has scored more goals than any other team in the loop. They have tallied 179 times, two more than Leafs were able to put behind opposing goalies. Their scoring power appears to be on the increase, despite the loss of the great Henri Richard.

Leafs of course, have plenty of marksmen. They showed that to Montreal fans the night of January 31 when they solidly thumped the Habs 6-3. They would dearly love to treat their own fans to such delightful entertainment tonight at the Gardens.

Perhaps they can stop the march of the hustling Habs and regain that much-coveted second place.

What do you think?

Congratulations

CONGRATULATIONS to Doug Cameron and his rink on winning the Prince Elward Island Curling championship.

It was a great one for Doug to win and a real heartbreaker for Art Burke to lose. But last February Art ended as the victor and Doug had to be satisfied with runnerup honors.

It looked like another Burke victory Saturday afternoon as Art led 9-7 coming home. Even after Cameron squared things at 9-9 in the 12th, we were figuring Burke a winner in the extra end. This reason was, of course, because Art had last rock and that meant plenty in such a situation.

BUT Doug, George, Joe and Lock overcame the handicap, counting a singleton in the 13th and forcing a contest for all the marbles that night

This time Cameron wasn't to be denied. It was anti-climax. Doug conqueered 12-8 and earned the trip to Brandon and the Macdonald Brier.

There were two great battles with two great rinks, either of which would be a fine representative at the Dominion championships.

Island curlers one and all will be pulling for the Cameron rink to really come through with a top notch display at the Brandon spiel.

Mow them down gentlemen.

Royals Hammer Penguins And Even Up Semi-Finals

Sandy's Parkdale Royals squared their best -of- seven semi- finals with Old Spain Penguins when they pounded out a 7-2 verdict over the Baby Birds at The Sports Arena last night.

The Penguins nipped the Parkdale 2-1 last Thursday in the first tussle of the Island Intermediate 'A' League semi-finals. The teams renew their feud Thursday night.

Royals were full credit for their triumph last night and they were off and running in a real hurry. They banged in four goals in the first twenty minutes and then outscored the Juniors 3-2 the rest of the distance.

The Birds started out as though they meant business and 'Butch' Ward had a few anxious moments in the Royals' cage in the early minutes of the contest. But then the Penguins' attack bogged down and Royals took control for the remainder of the stanza. Jim MacLeod, Allie Carver, Dick Carroll and Stu McLure took turns at beating an overworked Donnie Frizzell in the Old Spain cage.

The 'Bucko' Trainor coached gang fought the rugged Royals on even terms in the middle frame. After Eustace Reeves had made it a 5-0 hockey game at 3.25, the Penguins fought back to nullify that one at 15.20. It was hard working Arnold MacLeod who tipped the rubber by a surprised 'Butch' Ward. Dave Gaudet and 'Toy Toy' Gallant earning assists on the marker.

The third period found Royals outscoring their younger foes by 2-1. Gillis and Jim MacLeod tallying for the victors and 'Toy Toy' Gallant beating Ward for the Birds' tally.

DIFFERENT OUTFIT

The Old Spain lads were a far cry from the gang that upset Royals on Thursday. Their passing attack wasn't clicking and their power play failed to materialize when they had an advantage in manpower.

Royals played it rugged throughout the piece and the bumping took its toll on the lighter Penguins. Invaders over that Parkdale blueline were given rousing receptions by the Royals' defence corps.

But it was the first period only that put the Royals in the stalemate with Penguins in these semi-finals. Penguins' lapses in this twenty minutes couldn't be atoned for in the closing forty.

Referee Don Whelan managed to catch 27 offences. It was the most in a game here for some time but fans were holding for more than that. The going did get a bit dangerous at times but luckily nobody incurred serious injury.

Royals were far out in front in the penalty section, collecting 19 as compared with Penguins' 8.

Despite the seven goals scored on him, Donnie Frizzell was a standout for the losers. Donnie came through with several spectacsutaular saves to keep the Royals from going into double figures. Butch Ward had 26 rubbers fired at his cage. 13 less than the number the Royals directed at Frizzell.

A fair sized crowd witnessed the affair and the largest crowd of the season is expected on hand Thursday when the teams take the ice for the all-important third contest.

Summary — First Period— 1. Royals — Jim MacLeod (Gillis, Junior MacLeod) 4.50; 2. Royals — A. Carver (Whitlock, A. Carroll) 8.34; 3. Royals — D. Carroll (Reeves, A. Carroll) 11. 54; 4. Royals — McLure 17.38. Penalties Reeves 1.44, Junior MacLeod 2.11, Bursey 10.00, Bursey 16.00, Reeves, 16.00, D. Carroll 18.00, Junior MacLeod 20.00, Lawlor 20.00.

Second period — 5. Royals — Reeves 3.25; 6. Penguins— MacLeod (Dave Gaudet, L. Gallant) 15.20. Penalties — McLure, 0.26, D. Carrol 3.01, Lawlor 3.06, Junior MacLeod 3.06, Josey 6.10, MacIntyre 11.37, Ready (minor, major and misconduct) 16.59.

Third period — 7. Penguins — L. Gallant Lawlor, R. Gallant) 2.41; 8. Royals — Gillis (D. Carroll) 2.49; 9. Royals — Jim MacLeod Gillis, D. Carroll) 15.41. Penalties — Josey 3.15, Bursey 3.15, Martin (minor, misconduct and game misconduct) 5.43; Josey 10.16, Ward 11.20, MacIntyre 17.31, Ready 19.06, Josey 20.00.

JACKIE PARKER

Parker Goes To Toronto

By STAN McCABE

TORONTO (CP) — Jackie Parker, the football maestro who has led Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League's Western Conference for nine years has the job of taking the floundering Toronto Argonauts by the hand and leading them out of the wilderness.

Only the formality of signing remained Tuesday night to complete the most lucrative play the Tennessee - born "money" player has ever made, on or off the field.

The Eskimos traded him to the last-place Argos of the Eastern Conference for five players and an undisclosed amount of cash.

For the 31-year-old quarterback, the last-place Argonauts gave up guard and place-kicker Bill Mitchell, halfbacks John Rechner, Mike Wicklum and Joe Hernandez, and guard, linebacker and defensive end Zeke Smith.

DEAL UNCONDITIONAL

Lew Hayman managing director of the Argos, said the deal was unconditional and that it involved "a nominal amount of cash." He refused to disclose the amount. It was emphasized that since the trade was unconditional the deal stands no matter if any of the players refuse to report to Edmonton.

Mitchell, Rechner and Wicklum are Canadians, a commodity badly needed by the Eskimos in recent years.

Since Parker came to Canada from Mississippi State in 1954 he has been the nemesis of eastern teams. He was a key player in Edmonton's three straight Grey Cups champion ship victories in 1954, 1955 and 1956 over Montreal Alouettes.

Juveniles To Practice

Coach Lorney Hennessey has called an important workout this evening at Sports Arena at 6 o'clock sharp for all players who have been attending Abbie Juvenile workouts. This will be a tuneup for an exhibition game. Lorne's Juvenile Abbies will play tomorrow night at North River rink against Norman Larter's high- flying Parkdale Irving Oil Flyers. All players are asked to show up dressed and ready to take to the ice promptly on time this evening. The lineup for tomorrow night's game will be selected at tonight's practice.

Saints Take Hoop Battle

SUMMERSIDE — St. Dunstan's High School edged Summerside High 52-48 in a see saw battle at Civic Auditorium yesterday afternoon in a regular Senior "A" interscholastic basketball game.

The outcome of the game was uncertain until the last few seconds, when, with the score 50 to 48 Connolly sunk two foul shots to put his team four points out in front. Summerside was leading 26 to 25 at half time and the lead changed several times during the second half.

Gerry Hopkirk of Sum.Hi topped all marksmen tossing in 25 points. Bob LeClair sank 23 for the winners. Posty Connolly had 10, Hubley 9, Lawlor 6 and Strang 4, for S.D. High while the Summerside Romer Shewchuk sniped 7, Malcolm Coulson 6, Barry MacGregor 5, Ronnie Ramsay 2, Hank MacCormack 2, and Chick Sillipphant 1.

Island Schoolboys Split; Quebec, Alberta Leading

By PAUL RIMSTEAD

GUELPH (CP) — Alberta's Bonnie Doon Composite School rink from Edmonton, led by a brilliant skip named Wayne Saboe, scored a big win over Saskatchewan Tuesday night in the fourth round of the 11-round Canadian schoolboy curling championship.

It was the best game, by far, of the first two days of competition and wasn't decided until the final rock.

A 6-5 win gave Alberta four wins in four starts and made the rink an unquestionable favorite. It was Saskatchewan's first loss in three games. The Saskatchewan skip, Dennis Balderston of Moose Jaw, was equally proficient but he just didn't have the last rock often enough.

Northern Ontario forced undefeated Quebec, which shares the lead with Alberta with four wins and no losses, into an extra end. Quebec was lucky to escape with a 10-8 win.

In other fourth - round matches Manitoba defeated British Columbia 9-4, surprising Nova Scotia defeated Ontario 7-4, and Prince Edward Island kept its hopes alive with a 10-6 win over hapless New Brunswick.

TWINS GAMBLE

Saskatchewan had taken an early lead over Alberta until Saboe showed daring and capable hand in the eighth end when he gambled and took two.

It gave the Albertans the lead for the first time in the game. Saskatchewan tied it 5-5 in the ninth but Saboe clinched it with his final rock in the 10th.

John Hammond, skip of Quebec's Montreal High School rink was just as brilliant as his western counterparts. Northern Ontario, which had lost its first two starts, took a big five in the ninth end to come from behind a 7-3 deficit and take an 8-7 lead.

Hammond, who manages, coaches and trains his rink himself, saved the day for Quebec in the tenth end by taking one on his last rock.

He did the same in the resulting 11th and extra end, making a brilliant raise to take a Northern Ontario rock out and leave two of his own counting.

Balderston and Saboe gave a phenomenal exhibition of strategic curling and shotmaking for youngsters. Saboe, 19, won his game with his rumble on the eighth end. He was lying one with Balderston, 17, having last rock.

Instead of being satisfied to use his final rock as an additional guard and setting for the tie, Saboe drew through a narrow port to count two.

Balderston, with the house cluttered and little chance of reaching or beating the Alberta rocks, tied a raise on the outside but it was light and died

He was trying a shot similar to the one Hammond made to win for Quebec—but even more difficult.

Loop Tosses Out Contest

RCAF Eagles won their protest of Monday night's game with Prince County Combines.

The series will proceed an interpretation of a rule by the referee and were upheld by the executive of the Island Intermediate 'A' Hockey League.

The Combines had finished on top 9-2 in the game played Monday night at Civic Stadium.

The series will be going again Friday night at the Stadium. Originally the game was slated for tonight but has been pushed ahead to Friday.

The semi-final series between Eagles and Combines is a best-of-seven affair.

Balderston tied it in the ninth end with a straight takeout on his last rock.

Saboe's winning shot in the last end was another beauty.

Balderston had drawn, around a guard, to the 12-foot circle at the back of the house. Saboe made the same draw, nudging the Saskatchewan rock out.

Balderston tried the same shot, but just grazed the Alberta rock, settled to a stop beside it but too far to be good.

In the third round earlier Tuesday, Saskatchewan defeated Newfoundland on the last rock 6-5.

In other third-round matches, Nova Scotia topped New Brunswick 8-4 and British Columbia had little trouble with Ontario winning 10-4.

Hawks Grab First Game

MONCTON (CP) — Two goals in the last two minutes gave Moncton Hawks a 4-3 victory over New Glasgow Rangers and a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League semi-final series before 1,104 fans here Tuesday night.

The two late goals came after Rangers goaltender Ron Boomer had frustrated the schedule winning Hawks with his best game of the season on Moncton ice. Stopping several clear breakaways, Boomer drew the praise of Moncton players and playing coach Doug McPhee in particular.

The series resumes in New Glasgow tonight.

Ronnie Gaudet scored the winning goal with just 29 seconds left in the third period when his brother Oscar, the league's second highest point-getter, sent a pass across the goal mouth. Ronnie steered it behind Boomer, who had no chance on the play.

The tieing goal came from Cam Gaudet at 18:31.

The teams played through a scoreless first period and New Glasgow, third- place finishers in the four- team league, took a 2-1 lead in the second on goals by Amby Leblanc and Jim McNeil. Doug Howatt, who played a strong game, scored for Moncton.

Howatt tied it with his second goal after 19 seconds of the third period but Nels Gremblay gave New Glasgow the lead again at 8:32.

Boomer stopped 37 shots. Hawks' Jean Guy Morissette made 20 saves, including a big one late in the game when Rangers' Bob Judge broke into the clear and had only Morissette to beat.

Tartans Top Windsor

HALIFAX (CP) — Halifax's Moe Lamirande fired three goals Tuesday to pace the Tartans to a 6-3 win over Windsor Maple Leafs in the first of a best-of-seven Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League semi-final playoff

About 2,300 fans were on hand to watch Lamirande outguess Windsor goalie Jean Pierre Paquett in each of the three periods in a fast-moving but penalty-ridden game. The series resumes tonight at Windsor

Windsor's Jacques Allard, the league's top goal getter, opened scoring early in the game but goals by Gilles Picard and Lamirande gave Halifax a 2-1 first - period lead.

Allard tied it at the end of the second after Halifax's Hugh McGonigal, Picard and Lamirande scored three quick goals. Simon Nolet and Rod Gaudreault scored for Windsor.

Lamirande scored the winning goal at 14.01.

Fifteen penalties were handed out, including a misconduct to Windsor's Russ Malone.

Jim Trimble Lands Post

By MARVEN MOSS

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Alouettes scooped up Jim Trimble as head coach Tuesday, luring him away from Hamilton Tiger-Cats with a contract that obviously called for big money and an extended term.

The announcement was made at a press conference by M. E. (Ted) Workman, the 30-year-old president of the Alouettes who last month fired Perry Moss as head coach and general manager after a policy disagreement of undisclosed nature.

Both Trimble and Workman were mum about the details of the contract. But it was understood Trimble will get considerably more than the $18,500 a year he earned with the Ticats, plus bonuses for tickets sales in excess of 20,000 for each game.
