IRISHTOWN SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The teacher, Miss Florence McKenna, and the pupils of Irishtown School are receiving well deserved praise for the splendid entertainment provided by their Christmas concert, staged in the new community hall on Friday evening, before a large and certainly an appreciative audience. The numbers chosen were of good entertainment value, and in some cases, notably "The Golden Goose" of an ambitious nature for young and inexperienced actors. Nevertheless each character was convincingly portrayed, and the story interestingly worked up to a dramatic climax. Twin Christmas trees gave the stage a proper holiday air, and
