

Major Changes Can Be Expected In Big Four

By WILF GRUSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The task of revamping lineups for a new season has never been made with greater determination by the Big Four football union clubs in the light of the leagues record in the last three Grey Cup finals and the West's rise to football supremacy.

Montreal Alouettes' loss to Edmonton Eskimos for the third successive year in the 1955 final ended all further doubts about the relative strength of eastern and western football and that, more than anything else, lies behind the rebuilding by each Big Four club.

Major changes in the lineups can be expected, right from the league champion Alouettes, who have lined up the most impressive array of American imports, to the last-place Toronto Argonauts who have undergone a complete shake-up involving a new three-man coaching staff, a new program to recruit Canadian players and reorganization of the club's directors.

HAYMAN SEEKS CONTENDER

Low Hayman, former general manager of the Alouettes and once-time Argo coach, has been given the job as managing director in an effort to make Toronto a contender again. The new coaching staff is headed by Hampton Pool, head coach of Los Angeles of the National Football League for three years. Pool succeeds Bill Swiacki.

Hayman already has announced signing of 19 new imports and expects to have about 25 try out before the opening game of the season Aug. 20. Most of last year's imports, with the exception of guard Ron Marcinak, end Bucky Curtis and tackle Bill Lucky, are expected to return. They include Al Pfeifer and Menan Schriever, halves Dick Shatto and O. K. Ferguson, quarterback Arnie Gaffa and tackle Bill Albright.

The Alouettes, with Doug (Pea-head) Walker back for his sixth year as head coach, have signed 18 new imports. The holdovers are quarterback Sam Echeverry, backfielder Pat Abruzzi, end Hal Patterson and Red Quinn, tackle Billy Shipp and centre Tom Huggins.

The success in getting Ottawa Rough Riders into the playoffs last season for the first time since 1951 earned head coach Frank Clair and line coach Bill Smyth new five-year contracts. The Riders have disclosed the signings of only 10 new imports so far but Clair, who coached Argo to Grey Cup titles in 1950 and 1952, expects 28 on hand for pre-season training, including at least seven of last year's squad.

Hamilton Tiger-Cats, who also have announced the signing of only 10 new Americans, have added George Turpin, former Michigan State backfield coach, to head coach Jim Trimble and line coach Ralph Sazio. The Ticans expect to have nearly 20 new Americans trying out along with at least seven of their last year imports.

The question of whether quarterback Tom Dublinski will be back with Toronto remains in doubt. Argo allowed their option on his two-year, no-out contract to lapse leaving him free to return to the NFL. However, Argo hopes to negotiate a contract with the player.

He was out of action for all league games last year after injuring a knee in a pre-season exhibition.

Hamilton's new Americans include quarterback Bernie Faloy, the split-T ball handling magician who led Toronto to the Grey Cup title in 1954.

Floyd Patterson Fights Jackson

NEW YORK (AP)—Promoter Emil Lence announced Monday the heavyweight title bout between champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson will be held at the New York Polo Grounds, Monday, July 29.

Lence said the 15-rounder will be telecast coast to coast over the NBC network but that New York City and an area 75 miles around the city will be blacked out of the television. He said the television rights were sold to General Motors for $175,000.

Patterson will receive 40 per cent and Jackson 20 per cent of the television money and gate receipts.

Knox Now With Chicago Bears

CHICAGO (AP)—Ronnie Knox, one of the most widely publicized football players in the Pacific coast annals, has signed with the Chicago Bears, owner George Halas announced Monday.

Knox, former UCLA quarterback, did not finish his senior year. He played for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Big

6 Yankees Get $1,000 Fines

NEW YORK (AP)—Six prominent New York Yankees have been slugged with $1,000 fines as a result of their May 16 "birthday party" incident at a New York night club.

Outfielders Hank Bauer and Mickey Mantle, infielder Billy Martin, catcher Yogi Berra and pitchers Whitey Ford and Johnny Kucks—all regulars—were the players fined.

Although the club refused to confirm or deny the report, it was learned elsewhere that heavy fines had been levied.

The story was broken by Tim Fendley, who covers the Yankees for the New York Journal-American.

Most of the players were unavailable but Bauer was located at a barbershop before the Yankees left on the night train for Cleveland for their second western trip. "I don't know how it leaked out, but it's true," said Bauer. He declined further comment.

The fines were believed the largest ever handed out in Yankee history. The total of $6,000 was even higher than the $5,000 fine against Babe Ruth in 1925 after a row with manager Miller Huggins for "misconduct of the playing field."

Until Ted Williams as docked $5,000 last year for his spitting incident at Fenway Park, the Ruth fine had stood as baseball's all-time high.

A party for Billy Martin's 29th birthday that ran into the early morning resulted in the incidents that led to the club's action. Bauer was charged with beating up a man at the night club but denied the charges. Bauer faces a hearing after a civilian arrest June 21.

Manager May Be On The Way Out

MONTREAL (CP)—Reports are current in Montreal baseball circles that unless the International League Royals start winning manager Greg Mulleavy will be replaced.

General manager Rene Lemyre was non-committal. He wouldn't say yes or no.

The Royals, who were expected to be a top contender, have slid steadily down the team-standing until they now are in last place. They are on a road trip, currently in Toronto.

Lemre indicated that if Mulleavy should be let out there would be no trouble finding a successor. Names that have been mentioned in current gossip are Al Campanis, Joe Becker and Clay Hopper. Hopper was manager of the Royals when Jackie Robinson became the first Negro to play in organized baseball in 1946. His first assignment under the parent Brooklyn Dodgers was with the Royals.

The club's collapse has been something of an enigma. Several recent changes haven't helped matters particularly.

If Mulleavy is let out it is believed he will still remain in the Brooklyn organization by which he has been held in high regard as a baseball man.

Teeners Receive Bowling Awards

Two surprises were handed out, the first of which was that two silver plates were presented to the two men who made the bowling possible for the afternoon league. One each was given to W.O. 2 Harry Rule and to Sgt. Walter Mollison. The other was that the members presented a lighter, engraved, to their manager, Mill Mollison.

Crepello Will Win With Lot Of Luck Says Owner

By VERNON MORGAN
LONDON (Reuters)—Multi-millionaire Sir Victor Sassoon, whose Crepello is a heavy favorite to win Wednesday's Derby, cautiously predicted Monday that his handsome chestnut colt will win "with a lot of luck."

Sassoon told the annual derby luncheon at London's Press Club that he saw his 9-to-4 favorite Sunday and he looked "very well indeed."

His statement had the effect of quashing rumors that his husky three-year-old is not in good condition.

Odds on Crepello lengthened slightly at an odds callover Monday. The colt had been held at 2 to 1 last Friday.

Other top favorites are Greek shipping magnate Stavros Niarchos' Pipe of Peace, second choice at 7 to 1, and the Aga Khan's Prince Tai, a 100-to-9 shot.

Queen Elizabeth also is considered a good chance with Dougal, fifth choice at 100 to 1. Besides hundreds of bookies, nervous about the £5,000,000 already bet on Crepello, thousands of Irish Sweepstakes ticket holders await the result from Epsom. An estimated 2,000,000 spectators are expected to jam the picturesque track about 25 miles from London for the granddaddy of all horse races which started in 1779.

At the luncheon, Prince Aly Khan maintained that Prince Tai was the horse to beat. But he touted a long shot—Chippendale, 50 to 1.

A spokesman for Niarchos was equally optimistic, saying that Pipe of Peace "has given us no reason to suppose he does not stay. I think he is sure to run a good race."

The two American horses given an outside chance of snatching victory over Epsom Downs' 1 1/2-mile, undulating course are Royanum, owned by Mrs. George Ohrstrom of New York, and Tempest, owned by cosmetics queen Mrs. Elizabeth Arden Graham.

Canadians Have Target To Shoot

TORONTO (CP)—Canadians participating in a national golf weekend got their target to shoot at Saturday when champions Al Balding and Marlene Stewart Street posted 18-hole scores at St. George's.

Golfers from coast to coast may have an easier time than they expected.

Playing in steady rain Balding, the PGA champion from Toronto, shot a 74, two over par. Mrs. Street, who was a Marlene Stewart when she won the women's open last year, carded an 80—four over women's par for the St. George's course.

Balding and Mrs. Street were playing in a foursome with Ontario PGA president George Clifton and Canadian junior champion Cliff Cowan of Kiltneer, Ont. Both Cowan and Clifton had a 76.

The men can beat Balding by posting a lower net score than his gross of 74. And the women can beat Mrs. Street with a lower net than her gross of 80.

Billy Acora hit a home run for the Abbies. In a final game of the evening Barry's Lions pounded out a 32-4 victory over the BIS. Art Ballem was the winning pitcher while McDonald took the loss.

The Lions got most of their runs due to the wildness by McDonald and began who were the BIS pitchers, and some very timely hits. Junior McLeod played good ball for the BIS and Lorne Isreal played a good game for the Lions.

Dodgers Defeat Phillies; Pittsburgh Beats Giants

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Johnny Podres hurled a three-hitter Monday night as Brooklyn Dodgers shut out Philadelphia Phillies 4-0 at Connie Mack Stadium.

Podres struck out nine men and walked four.

Two of the Dodger runs came on lead-off homers, the first in the fifth inning by Gil Hodges and the second in the ninth by Gino Cimoli. Hodges scored Brooklyn's second run in the seventh on a walk, going to second on Roy Campanella's sacrifice, and coming home on a single by Don Zimmer to left.

Hodges, who scored three of the four Dodger runs and had two for three, doubled to the centre field in the ninth after Cimoli's homer and then, after Cammy again sacrificed to the pitcher, Gil came home on a wild pitch.

Rookie starter Don Cardwell hurled good ball, getting seven strikeouts and walking only two batters through seven innings. He gave up seven hits. He was lifted for pinch hitter Joe Lonnett and Jim Hearn finished the game.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pirates knocked Games out of the box with a three-run blast in the second inning and the Giants got rid of Pirate starter Vernon Law in the third when they tied the score. King came on to end the inning by striking out Willie Mays and Dusty Rhodes.

The Pirates got two runs off Margonerl in the third inning and scored what proved to be the winning run in the fifth.

The Giants scored single runs in the sixth and eighth innings.

Restaurant Ass'n Head Visits Here

"Operations here are of a standard comparable to any other place in Canada and you can be proud of your facilities and improvements which have been made in recent years", Ross C. Brown, of Vancouver, President of the Canadian Restaurant Association, told the Guardian last evening.

Mr. Brown, accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Florence Montgomery, of Toronto, Managing Director of the Association are currently on a visit to P.E.I. and met with association members from the Charlottetown area on Monday. They will visit Summerside on Tuesday.

They were entertained by Charlottetown members at a reception at the Charlottetown Hotel last evening, during which a film "The Order of Good Cheer" was shown.

Mr. Brown commented favourably on the cleanliness of local establishments, noting that members are required to meet and maintain a certain standard in order to qualify for Association recognition. The Association has a membership of over 1,600 across the Dominion, in which restaurant volume is $700,000,000 per year.

Mr. Brown drew attention to the fact that the H.J. Heinz Co. is offering a $1,000 scholarship to a student who takes up food service as a profession, and commented on the Company's film, "Careers for Youth", which is to be distributed in the near future.

In regard to the economy of the Province and its tourist industry, Mr. Brown said that "a change in liquor laws would be most desirable" and suggested that they be patterned after those of such provinces as Manitoba, Ontario, etc. "I favour serving a complete line of spirituous liquors in restaurants and hotels, under proper control," he stated, remarking that the standard of both the food and service would tend to show improvement.

FIND BOTTLES BUT NO BEER

DETROIT (CP)—Hopes of a beer party on 84-year-old brew fell through Monday when salvage workers pried Maude from the Detroit river and found only empty bottles.

In 1923 the Maude made a run across the Detroit River with a cargo of Canadian beer but just before she reached the American shore she capsized and sank in the river.

Crews working on clearing the Detroit waterfront found the Maude upside down in the river mud with a cargo of beer bottles with their caps rusted off.

Plan Huge Tents For Arts Festival

HALIFAX (CP)—Festival officials said Monday that two 40-by-60-foot tents are in order for the second Nova Scotia Festival of the Arts opening here at Tatmagouche Aug. 9.

The new tents, costing over $6,000 were to be erected because cramped facilities at last year's festival inconvenienced spectators. Financial help in paying for the tents will be sought from interested individuals and organizations. Actors, musicians, artists and craftsmen donate their own time and efforts in producing the non-profit festival.
