

MR. AND MRS. GERALD SELINGER
City Hospital Graduate -
Marries In Saskatchewan

A very pretty summer wedding of much interest to her Island friends was solemnized in the Sacred Heart Church, Swift Current, Saskatchewan, when Bernadette Lorraine Sinnott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sinnott, Bristol, became the bride of Gerald Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Selinger of Swift Current, Saskatchewan, in a double ring ceremony, with Reverend Father L. Mondor officiating.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin Alex Sinnott of the R.C.M.P. of Montreal, looked winsome in a floor length gown of white satin with a lace covered bodice and sabrina neckline. Her chapel length veil fell from a pearl studded headress. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom, and carried a white prayer book adorned with pink and white carnations and pink sweetheart roses with satin streamers.

Miss Thelma Walsh, R.N. of Prince Edward Island was maid of honor and Mr. Richard Selinger, brother of the groom was best man.

The ushers were Mr. Brian Pasuzzo and Mr. Bob Conn.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the groom's home, after which the happy young couple left on a wedding trip to Banff, Alberta.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered many showers by her friends and received many lovely and useful gifts.

A graduate of the nineteen fifty-six class of nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital and a post graduate of the Brandon General Hospital, the bride was also on the staffs of hospitals in Winnipeg and Virdein.

The groom is an official of the General Petroleum Company and is stationed at Swift Current.

ELIEN'S DIARY

They're Off To School And How We Miss Them

This was a strangely quiet day at Alderlea. There was no lass to come by from the house across the lane on young errands: to beg 'do tell me where you put that new magazine. I've looked all over for it!' Or 'I'd like to stitch this skirt for my doll, on the machine. Would you have a spool of thread this exact shade of pink?' or perhaps just to sit and chat with us of a hundred things-may-be of Alex's latest move toward growing up, he that is "the busiest and smartest baby on this farm!"

No Mack came by either, hastening in on some masculine quest to say wherever for a hammer but do you suppose I can find one? I don't know where they can be. Or "You wouldn't know where I could find a five-inch spike and a few finish nails, would you?" one and all needed so desperately to complete some young project of carpentry at hand.

Or perhaps in certain enchanting moments of his leisure bringing with him a western z' "funny" or two for us to share-to read aloud to him not with the best grace at heart but in a voice which we hope never betrays it.

These tales are so interesting to the gun-toin' small fellows of these times and because as he points out to us "the bad fellow always gets his deservings" who can say what fine lessons such reading mass instill!

No, no children today. The school down the River Road summoned its youngsters to classes this morning. Vacation was over. Sun and shower, dew of morning, veils of dusk of the long summer days, was past. Work of it, play, excursions, were only memories now. Nice memories for the children these farms we believe, for we heard many a young laugh and very few tears in its duration. We watched them go as we know also did their mother, getting a last glimpse of them in the green distance beyond the hilltop.

And in rural palaces Island-over we could fancy the procession going setting out from farm and village home—the older pupils confidently, the little ones graduating now from baby hood, wonderingly... maybe with some hesitation setting forth. A word would keep them home. How difficult not to say it! But we let them go.

Yes, we are sure that some Island mother at her door this morning shaded her eyes not against the sunlight but because outlines
