

THE DAILY EXAMINER

JULY 13, 1894.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The French treaty cannot be such a bad thing after all. In support of it, the Government had the support of Mr. Laurier and a large contingent of his followers.

Yacht racing is one of the points in which the Americans undoubtedly excel. Yet they have this year been unable to carry off the honors from the Britanians. "Britannia's gem of the ocean."

Gazette: The Montreal Herald attributes the labor troubles in Chicago to the operations of protection. An equally eminent New York authority says they are due to the work of the seventeen year locust.

The announcement of Hon. Mr. Foster that the provisional contract with Mr. Hurd had been changed making the terminal port of the fast line in winter either Halifax or St. John or both, in place of Halifax, gives great satisfaction in New Brunswick. Messrs. Hazen, Chesley and McLeod have been persistent in pressing the matter on the Government.

The British imports from Canada have increased $694,665, or 40 per cent in the past six months, as compared with the same period of 1893. The chief increases are: Sheep, $18,000; lard, $37,000; hams, $5,000; butter, $3,000; cheese, $38,000; eggs, $1,500; fish, $278,000; wool, $260,000. The exports from Great Britain to Canada during the same period decreased 25 per cent.

Mr. Dickson, supervisor, called at THE EXAMINER office today and denied that he told the contractor referred to yesterday that Premier Peiers had cancelled the contract. He said he had been done by the Commission. We should be sorry to do either the Premier or Mr. Dickson any injustice, and can only say that the statement was distinctly and explicitly made in THE EXAMINER.

It is said that nine commercial travelers, on their way here yesterday, turned back on hearing that the special tax upon them is being applied. A "Traveler" writes to the St. John Sun to complain about being "taxed" by one of the brass buttoned gentlemen of the Island.

Backed up by all the dignity which the laws of Prince Edward Island can afford him. The same correspondent says: "It is not only the Knights of the Grip who experience this grand sensation of becoming acquainted with the law and its branches, but men of pleasure, who on their marriage trip and visiting this beautiful island and making friends, have been served with 'summons to appear' for so doing." Prince Edward Island is being sneered at by every traveler between here and Vancouver Island, and bids fair soon to be a by-word for meanness, all that the farmers might be humbugged with the false idea that they are being relieved of a certain amount of taxation! The fact is that every commercial traveler who is worth his salt while to come here will take $15 and more out of his customers who in turn will take the full amount and more out of the people at large.

PRESBYTERIAL CONVENTION.

The Presbyterian Convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church of P. E. Island was held in Zion Church yesterday. After the opening proceedings, and the appointing of committees, various reports, verbal and written were made. At the morning session an instructive paper on "How to make our meetings attractive," by Miss McNitt, of Malpoine. Mrs. Stewart, President of the Society, reviewed the work of the past year. Miss May McLeod gave a recitation, "Giving Our Dearest."

After the afternoon session, Mrs. Stewart gave a bible reading, and greetings were received from the Baptist and Methodist W. M. S. and the W. C. T. U. of this city, to which the president responded. Mrs. Huggan read the Treasurer's report. The amount raised this year was $25.05, against $23.60 last year.

NAVAL NOTES.

A cricket match between an eleven from the Phoenix Club and an eleven from H. M. S. Canada will be played at Victoria Park to-morrow. The sailors from the warships made things lively about Queen Square and Richmond Street last night. The fact that it is generally rumored throughout the country that a sham-fight will shortly take place in the city accounts for the request of a Little Rural Miss, who asked, "Please, mamma, let me go to town to see the sham-fight."

The Naval and Military Record of June 28th says that the flag ship Blake will be relieved shortly and return to Chatham to be paid out of commission. A respondent writes: The citizens would be greatly pleased if a review of the sailors in conjunction with our local militia could be arranged. It is some time since the volunteers have turned out, if they would do so now it would show that they are not, as is generally supposed, dead, but only sleeping.

The St. John Telegraph says: Mrs. Harrison's reception was most enthusiastic, and her stage manner so winning, that it is no wonder she captured the audience at the very outset. Her first selection was the serenade Valse Espagnole, by Metru, which was rendered in an unusually pure soprano voice, and the high notes were as clear and sweet as those of a nightingale. She was most splendidly accompanied in this selection by Harrison's orchestra. Her second selection was the cavatina "Sempra Labera" by Verdi, a beautiful song, and perfectly rendered. Both songs called for rapturous ecstasies, which were kindly responded to. Mrs. Harrison possesses a voice of wonderful compass, and is one of the best singers that has been in St. John.

Cut With a Knife.—About half-past one this afternoon two women named Began and Mrs. John Monaghan, living on King Street, near Pownall, had a disagreement over a clothesline, and the upshot of the somewhat animated argument was that Mrs. Began cut the line with a knife. After cutting the line Mrs. Began started to enter her house, when she was followed and attacked by Mrs. Monaghan, whereupon she struck at Mrs. Monaghan with the knife, cutting her right hand badly. The principal cut is in the palm of the hand, extending lengthwise for almost three inches, and one of the fingers is also badly cut. Dr. Dorsey is in attendance.

OTTAWA CORRESPONDENCE.

A familiar figure during every session for the last quarter of a century has been that of Senator Glasier, of New Brunswick—Main John, as he was known at home. The old gentleman died last Saturday, after a short illness, at the age of 85 years. I had not missed him, indeed, I am sure that I saw him two days before his death. He did not long survive his old friend, Senator Montgomery. They were always seen together going to and from the Senate. I had a long chat with Senator Glasier early this session, and he was deeply moved when talking of his old friend. Mr. Glasier's sight of late was very bad, and he had undergone one or two operations in Montreal. A few weeks ago I pulled him from in front of an electric car, which would certainly have knocked him down. There are a number of vacancies now in the Senate.

Mr. Foster is still indisposed, and almost entirely incapacitated for business. He has managed to attend a few of the sessions of the Colonial Conference, lying on a lounge. It is rumoured that he is suffering from.

Mr. Tarte has not yet come to time with his promised impeachment of certain of the Quebec judges. During recent he never tired upon me, and I am sure to do when Parliament meets, but this is the fourth session that has gone by, and Mr. Tarte has not redeemed his promise. It is cowardly on Tarte's part, for the Judges have no reason against him.

Mr. McCarthy seems to be satisfied to let another session go by without introducing his long promised measure for the abolition of the French language, &c. Time after time he has been on hand to take advantage of it. McCarthy is a humbug.

The Curran bridge scandal is still engendering distrust in the Public Accounts Committee. There is no doubt that a big swindle was perpetrated on the Government, and that the bridge cost twice as much as it was worth. The Opposition would like to prove that members of the Government are implicated in the dirty business, but thus far they have failed to produce any evidence to that effect.

A week ago the Montreal Herald published a sensational article, with display heading, purporting to be an interview with Mr. Kennedy, who was a superintendent of the work. Mr. Kennedy was represented as declaring that he would not continue to be the scapegoat of other men, that when he went to Ottawa he would tell all he knew, and spring a mine that would destroy more than one public man.

But when Mr. Kennedy appeared before the Public Accounts Committee his first words were in repudiation of the Montreal Herald's story, which he denounced as wholly false. As all the Grip printed copies of the article, it will be in order for them to publish Mr. Kennedy's repudiation.

Another contemptible falsehood was originated by the same sheet, the Montreal Herald. Without the shadow of foundation, it published a story, pretending that a plot had been concocted to prevent Mr. Laurier speaking at the banquet in honor of the Colonial Delegates and the opening of an accident the scheme miscarried. This story is one of the silliest, and at the same time one of the most malicious lies that could be invented.

The relations between Sir John Thompson and Mr. Laurier are characterized by that courtesy which invariably distinguishes the dealings of one gentleman with another, and it is too absurd for belief that Sir John Thompson should be treated for one moment as a discourteous person by his gentlemanly opponent in politics.

Before the Committee on Agriculture and Colonization last week, Mr. Burgess, Deputy Minister of Interior, outlined the operations of the department last year, in the direction of procuring immigrant settlers upon Government lands in the Northwest Territories.

Mr. Burgess stated that there was a very large falling off of immigration from Europe and particularly from the United Kingdom, to all countries, Canada included. It was a fact, however, he pointed out, that the percentage of the whole immigration coming to Canada in the last calendar year, and since, have taken up homesteads more promptly than ever before, probably to their being a larger number of the whole immigration possessed of means sufficient to enable them to settle on and occupy lands.
