Inopportune Deaths.
 Julius Caesar was assassinated when he had almost completed the task of consolidating the administration and dominion of the Roman empire, and his death opened the way to that despotism and corruption which ultimately undid his work. Henry of Navarre was killed when he had almost healed the differences between Catholic and Protestant which subsequently rent not only France, but Europe, and William the Silent also fell when he was on the point of uniting the Netherland provinces into a compact barrier against the encroachments of Spain.
 In English history Lord Clive died at the moment when he was the one man who could have saved the American colonies and kept the Anglo-Saxon race united, but there is the case of Mirabeau. He was literally the one man in France who could have averted the horrors of the revolution, saved and reformed the monarchy and so spared Europe the murderous career of Napoleon and all the devastation it brought. If he had lived ten or even five years longer, the history not only of France, but of Europe and the world, would have been different. It is in fact sufficient to say that he would have made both Robespierre and Napoleon impossible.—Strand Magazine.

Pelican and Duck in a Duel.
 In Kew gardens, in the presence of a considerable number of spectators, an affair of honor was settled between a pelican and a duck. The birds had had words together, so to speak, and the pelican determined that the next best thing to making the duck eat his words was to eat the duck. So, after a little thrust and parry on the water, he made for the smaller bird and snapped it into his pouch.
 Then a battle royal began inside the pouch of the pelican. The duck struggled, kicked, quacked and occasionally managed to get a leg or a wing outside, while his captor threw his beak high in the air, then dipped it into the water, and kept it there, as if trying to suffocate or drown its enemy. From the look of the agitated pouch it seemed as if the contest was by no means one sided, but that the pelican was having rather a rough time.
 At last the duck got his head and one wing out, and then, with a magnificent effort, managed to get entirely free. Once again on the water, the duck declined further combat and fled, while the pelican remained, looking as if honor were thoroughly satisfied.—London Telegraph.

Blue Stockings.
 According to an English magazine the appellation "blue stockings" originated in the dress of a Benjamin Stillingfleet, grandson of the bishop, as he used to appear at the parties of Mrs. Montague, in Portman square. He used to generally wear blue worsted stockings, and he was a very amiable and entertaining man. Whenever he was absent from Mrs. Montague's evening parties, as his conversation was very interesting, the company used to say, "We can do nothing without the blue stockings." By degrees the assemblies were called "blue stocking clubs" and learned people "blue stockings."

Charcoal absorbs the gases and relieves the distended stomach pressing against the nerves which extend from the stomach to the head.

A Monster Flower.
 The largest flower in the world, it is said, is the bolo, which grows on the island of Mindanao, one of the Philippine group. It has five petals, measures nearly a yard in width, and a single flower has been known to weigh 22 pounds. It grows on the highest pinnacle of the land, or about 2,500 feet above the level of the sea.

No Escape.
 "What is your name, Mr. Throgson?"
 "My name is Adam, Miss Well-along."
 "And my first name is Eve! Dear me! What a—what a remarkable coincidence!"—Chicago Tribune.

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? The intelligent physician will know that it is some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription exerts a wonderful power over woman's delicate organism. It is an invigorating tonic and is specific for the peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and painful derangements of woman. Careless, easy-going doctors frequently treat their women patients for biliousness, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver or kidney troubles, when the real sickness is in the organs distinctly feminine, and no help can come till they are made perfectly strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

A LESSON FOR WOMEN.
Mrs. Dowson of Toronto Cured of Female Weakness by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

TORONTO, Nov 21.—The case of Mrs. Ellen Dawson, of 640 Gerrard St. east, who has been restored to vigorous health, by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after six years of agony from Female Weakness, and Palpitation of the heart, is causing widespread interest in the east end.
 Mrs. Dawson writes that she used three so-called kidney cures and was treated by one of Toronto's most prominent physicians without deriving the least benefit.
 The first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills gave her pronounced relief; eight boxes cured her thoroughly.
 Mrs. Dawson's case furnishes a lesson every woman should learn. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friend.

"How that toy of mine has improved in his penmanship!" exclaimed Mr Billus with fatherly pride, glancing over a letter he had just received from his eldest son, away from home on his first visit.
 Then Mr Billus began to read it, and he understood. It began, "Dearest Lucy."
 No, it wasn't the letter the boy had meant to send his father.—Chicago Tribune.

Minard's Liniment Cures LaGrippe

"Take my seat, madam," he said politely.
 "Oh, I really couldn't," she protested.
 And she was right about it, too, for he was something over a 250 pound man, and she was something under a 90 pound woman. But that didn't prevent her from taking enough of the seat so that the rest of it was of no value to him.—Chicago Post.

A member of a volunteer fire brigade did not appear at the scene of the conflagration until after the fire was under control. The chief of the department reproached him bitterly for his neglect of duty.
 "It's not my fault, replied the fireman, I live a long way from the fire."
 "That's no excuse. You must move nearer to the next fire."—Tid-Bits.

SKIN-DEEP BEAUTY!

DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT BEAUTIFIES THE SKIN

balm; one application gives comfort and relief in an instant, and in from three to five nights the trouble disappears. Price, 35 cts.

A London lady had eczema for years so badly, her face and neck were so disfigured she went into a life of seclusion, and the stinging pain of it was so intense that, to use her own words, she "went next thing to mad." She tried many ointments, salves and washes—was treated by specialists on skin diseases without getting any lasting benefit. She bought a box of Dr. AGNEW'S OINTMENT—one application gave her comfort, and to-day, after using three boxes her skin is as clear and pink as a baby's.

A Toronto gentleman, living on Dovercourt Road, spent a small fortune in treatments and remedies for piles in their very worst form, was treated by electricity with temporary relief only, and had decided to go on the operating table and have a surgical operation performed, but was recommended to try Dr. AGNEW'S OINTMENT—he did so. The first application of it relieved the intense distress—he persisted in its use and to-day he is rewarded with a cure after years of suffering.
