Horton - Simmons Wedding

The Baptist Church in Tryon was the scene of the pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon, August 21, at 3 o'clock of Glenda Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simmons of Crapaud, to Wendell Herbert Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Horton of Bethel, N.B., assisted by Rev. W. J. Killam, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Harold Linkletter, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the wedding music and played "The Lord's Prayer" previous to the bridal party entering the church, and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the registry. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with bouquets of gladiol, mixed flowers, potted plants and ferns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Doreen Maynard, as maid of honour, Miss Florence Matheson, as bridesmaid, and the Misses Gloria Large and Helen Linkletter, cousins of the bride, as flower girls. Mr. Lloyd Horton was his brother's groomsmen. Messrs. Keith and Earl Beaton ushered the guests to their places which were marked with sprigs of sweet peas and white ribbon.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of white nylon net over satin, featuring a lace bolero with seed pearl trim. The long sleeves came to a point over the wrists. Her finger-tip veil fell from a matching halo and she carried an arm bouquet of Better Time roses and baby's breath.

The maid of honour was gowned in floor-length pastel pink taffeta with matching headdress and mitts, and the bridesmaid was attired in floor-length lime nylon net over taffeta with matching headdress and mitts. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers. The flower girls wore frocks of blue nylon sheer and maize tulle, respectively, with matching headdresses. They carried nosegays of sweet peas.

Mrs. Simmons chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of silver gray pressed satin with navy accessories and a corsage of Better Time roses, and the groom's mother wore a dress of blue nylon sheer with grey accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for one hundred and twenty guests was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, Crapaud, where the rooms were decorated with baskets of gladiol and mixed flowers. Presiding over the tea urns were Mrs. W. S. Large and Mrs. B. C. Wood and assisting in serving were Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. William Waddell, Miss Elsie Francis, Miss Mary Ferguson, Mrs. Alder Large, Miss Audrey Coles, Miss Emily Higgins, Mrs. Wynan Large, Miss Phyllis Williams, Mrs. John Simmons, Miss Clara Simmons, Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mrs. Parker Francis, Mrs. Fred Oakes, Mrs. J. D. MacParlane, Mrs. John Nicholson.

The table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, and a dark fruit cake, both of which had been made by Mrs. Howard Callbeck, great aunt of the bride. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. A. Hicks and responded to by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton left on a honeymoon trip for Niagara Falls, returning by way of the United States. For travelling the bride wore a suit of ice blue gabardine with pink accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses. On return they will reside at 151 Upper Prince Street. The groom who is on the teaching staff of Prince Street School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Mount Allison University one week prior to the wedding.

Previous to the marriage the couple were tendered a miscellaneous shower in Crapaud Community Hall, where they received many lovely gifts. The groom-to-be was the recipient of a silver service from his fellow Islanders before leaving the University. During the wedding ceremony the bride received a telegram of good wishes from Miss Helen Kelly of Montreal, an intimate friend who they attended Mount Allison.
